As stated in Ordinance No. 437, Item 2.:

Any person or entity who applies for a license, and who may be granted a license by the Secretary of the Borough of Liberty under the provisions of this Ordinance, shall pay to the Borough, upon receipt of the license, a license fee of $10.00 to defray the costs of administration of this Ordinance and, additionally, the sum of $50.00 deposit, which deposit shall be refundable to the person or entity applying for the license provided all political signs posted or erected by such person or entity are removed within five (5) calendar days following any municipal election. Failure to remove such signs posted or erected within five (5) calendar days following any municipal election shall subject the person or entity paying the license deposit to a forfeiture of the deposit, plus any fine or penalty hereinafter provided for, and all such posted or erected signs shall be removed by employees of the Borough of Liberty. Each sign that remains after the deadline for the removal of the same shall be considered a separate offense for the person or entity posting or erecting such sign.
