TESTIMONIALS

1. In his book "Made in America," (pages 375 & 384) the highly successful Peter Ueberroth, Head of the 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Committee referred to Stan and others as "superstars" when he said, "There are many who performed exceptionally well, and they deserve special mention."

2. After the trial of a convicted felon for assault on a police officer, a veteran Deputy District Attorney Michael Tobey wrote, "Stan is the most outstanding, effective expert witness I have ever had the pleasure of questioning on the witness stand."

3. International Olympic Committee Second Vice-President Ashwini Kumar, the Security Liaison, stated at the conclusion of the 1984 Olympic Games, "Stan Kephart's practical and theoretical knowledge of public security matters is impeccable."

4. After Stan co-authored a trial advocacy court case as a police practices expert, McGeorge Law School Dean Gerald Caplin stated, "The fact that outstanding experts such as you assist our students in their education is a key reason for our popularity."

5. Superior Court Judge Melinda M. Reed wrote while supervising Chief Probation Officer Kephart, "Mr. Kephart's training and expertise in law enforcement is certainly evident, as he is quite knowledgeable in all areas of law enforcement, including courtroom and juvenile detention facility security."

6. After the events of 9/11, Major General Paul D. Monroe, the California Adjutant General, Commander of State Military Forces stated, "I recalled Lt. Colonel Kephart because, based on qualifications and performance, Stan Kephart is the best at what he does in tactical law enforcement training."

7. A juror after one of Stan's cases stated, "Stan Kephart was so qualified, we had no doubt, much less a reasonable doubt."
