

What's Happening at GCPL

Happy New Year from the Giles County Public Library staff! We hope you have a fantastic 2019! We hope you will make the library a part of your normal routine with the books, magazines, programs, etc. for all ages that we have and are planning for 2019.

The month of January, we will host our 3rd Annual Arts & Crafts Exhibition. We have some amazing artists in our area. Stop by and see the visual display of talent from our local artists. It is not too late to put something on display either!

If you are a teenager and looking for fun and/or an interesting group or club to be a part, check out the January calendar. Our new Teen Services Librarian, Elizabeth Roller, is planning several meetings to get teens involved, see what your interests are and to give input on programs for that age group. We hope to see you here!

We have a new face for story time starting in January. Susan Hickman, former Richland Elementary School Librarian, will be coordinating story times. Calling all moms, dads, grand moms, and grand dads of pre-school age children for story times on Fridays at 10:15.

The Giles County Historical Society quarterly meeting is set for January 27th at 2:00 here in the library and the title of the program is "First Stop on the Road to Freedom."

On February 12th, we are having a Taste and Tell with Sheree Rose Kelley. This event will be held at the Extension Office Conference building at 5:30. We are also having a cookbook sale in conjunction with this event! We have been collecting cookbooks for a few months. So if you love to collect cook books, this is great for you! We will start taking reservations for the taste and tell soon.

February is Black History Month and we will have Ms. Vivian Sims visit with us again for a program on February 19th at 5:30. The title of her program is "I'm Proud to be a Descendant of a Slave." Ms. Sims is a wonderful speaker and this program will be very educational.

March is quilt month and we will have our annual quilt display for the whole month. We will start taking quilt entries between February 11th and February 28th. We accept new and old quilts, hand and machine quilted and would like to have ones that have not been displayed here before. The next Library Tea is a Spring Tea scheduled for April 26th.

The Grits and Gunpowder Book Club held the third annual Holiday Gala in the beginning of December for the benefit of the library. Thank you to all involved in planning, hosting, cooking and decorating for a lovely evening for the library. Proceeds from the event help to fund the library's wish list and therefore benefit the community.

If you have become a Robert Bailey fan, the John Grisham of Alabama, then you will be glad to know that his next book is coming out on April 23rd titled The Final Reckoning. And you will also be glad to know that he is coming back to Giles County Public Library for a book signing and author event on May 7th. We are all looking forward to reading this book and having him back in the library!

All of our regular and special programs are listed on the calendars in this newsletter. We also have fliers on all our events at the library. Stop by any time. We are looking forward to a great 2019 here at the library!

Cindy Nesbitt, Director

"Libraries have always seemed like the richest places in the world to me, and I've done some of my best learning and thinking thanks to them. Libraries and librarians have definitely changed my life and the lives of countless other Americans." ~ Barbara Bush
