

This is a list of agencies, organizations, community resources available to the stroke survivor and their caregiver. Please check with the post-stroke rehabilitation team about additional sources of assistance and support. Your local library, hospital, health department, senior/community center and support groups also can help you to locate the resources you need. You can also access these resources at Stroke Survivors Empowering Each Other's website www.sseeo.org or 888-988-8047.
