Salutation from the Pastor

As I was thinking about what to include in the August Post-Scripts, I learned that author J.I. Packer passed away on July 17, 2020. Packer's book, Knowing God, arguably had a greater effect on me than any other book I read in the early part of my life. I read it as a Senior in high school, and though I wouldn't discern a call to ministry until mid-college, this book did for me, intellectually, what people like my grandmother did for me relationally – deepen my faith in Christ and my purpose as his servant. There is no way I can summarize all the powerful parts of his writing and teaching, so I'll try to give you a sampling that I pray will whet your appetite for more:

In Knowing God J. I. Packer writes: "If you want to judge how well a person understands Christianity, find out how much he makes of the thought of being God's child, and having God as his Father. If this is not the thought that prompts and controls his worship and prayers and his outlook on life, it means that he does not yet understand Christianity very well."

How would Packer summarize the whole of New Testament teaching in one word? The best single word would be adoption, as he writes that the New Testament religion is "A revelation of the Fatherhood of the holy Creator ...

the knowledge of God as one's holy Father ... Everything that Christ taught, everything that makes the New Testament new, and [completes] the Old, everything that is distinctively Christian ... is summed up in the knowledge of the Fatherhood of God."

Packer says that each of us should ask ourselves the following questions: Do I, as a Christian, understand myself? Do I know my own real identity? My own real destiny? Calling this "the secret of a Christian life and of a God-honoring life," he says that we should take the following truths, and "Say them over and over to yourself first thing in the morning, last thing at night, any time your mind is free, and ask that you may be enabled to live as one who knows it is all utterly and completely true." I am a child of God by adoption.

1. God is my Father, through faith in Christ.
2. Heaven is my home.
3. Every day is one day nearer.
4. My Savior is my brother.
5. Every Christian is my brother or sister too.

A caveat: the book, Knowing God, is definitely a theological work, but I believe it is also very engaging – for "new" or "old" Christians alike. If you haven't read it, I highly recommend it.

The Board of Deacons would like to express a special thanks to the congregation for the donations we received during the Coronavirus pandemic. We appreciate you remembering us with your generous financial support. Your contribution to the Deacon fund will help us to continue to provide assistance to families who are experiencing difficult circumstances. Grace and peace to all of you. Thank you for support, prayers, and thoughtfulness.

Ephesians 5:19 "speaking to one another with psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit. Sing and make music from your heart to the Lord..."

We know that God meets us where we are. We know he is omnipresent. So we know he hears us when we sing whether with our lips or from the silent recesses of our hearts. Sometimes the most powerful musical prayer is sung in the dark of the evening in whispers. We know he hears it. So as we sing from home during virtual worship or silently from our pew, He hears us.

Our Puckety choir has met a few times via "zoom" to meet and chat and yes, try to sing. We learned that did not go so well because of delays and such, and we got a chuckle out of that!

We truly need people to step forward to offer special music this summer either at worship or via recording. Please contact Lorraine Menk, choir director, at 724-339-9531 or kirbie1@comcast.net if you would like to learn more.

And keep a song in your HEART!

A Special Thank You for Remembering

We would like to express our deepest appreciation to all our Puckety Church friends for their congratulatory cards for our 50th Wedding Anniversary. We received dozens upon dozens of heartfelt expressions from more folks than we could list here. We wish to thank Pastor Brian for his special video tribute he forwarded to us and his kind comments during the Sunday services. It was a unique experience to have our special event fall in the middle of a pandemic where our outside contacts were very limited. This gave the cards and phone calls added significance. We recognized that gathering cards and mailing them during this challenging time had to be difficult. We always knew that our Puckety family is very special. You have proven it yet again by going all out. You made our day very special.

We are looking forward to the day when we can thank one and all in person for your thoughtfulness, but until that day comes please stay healthy and safe.

Thanks for thinking of us,
Sandy and Vince Appleman

From Pastor Brian: I would like all our members to know that I am happy to come and visit you at home if that is something you would like. Of course, I will continue to practice the wise precautions (face covering, social distancing, etc.) as long as they are in effect. For all those who are not quite comfortable with home visits yet, I would love to start with a phone conversation. If either sounds good to you, feel free to call Pastor Brian: 724-678-6976 (mobile number). I am greatly looking forward to getting to know everyone.

Wednesday Women's Bible Study:

A new Women's Bible Study has been proposed to meet on the second Wednesday of the month at 7 PM. We will meet in the library and if needed move to a bigger space for discussion. There are two possible studies to kick off this group, "Believing Jesus: A Journey Through the Book of Acts" by Lisa Harper or "It's All Under Control. A journey of letting go, hanging on, & finding a peace you almost forgot was possible." by Jennifer Dukes Lee. The first meeting is slated for Wednesday September 9th, following safety guidelines as they are at the time. This group is open to all women in the church and any friends you feel might like an evening Bible Study. Please let Wiebke Kilbert know if you are interested in joining the study group at 724-799-3323 or veesb@yahoo.com.

YARN STORE.

Yarnaholic seeking other Yarnaholics to form a "support" group. As an avid crocheter there is great joy in meeting together with other yarn crafters to share what we are working on, knowledge, skills and love of our craft. I would love to put together a monthly meeting time with fellow crafters, knitters, crocheters, cross-stitchers, sewers, etc, where we can get together and enjoy time with our crafts together. You are welcome to bring anyone who might like to come and join us. If you would be interested in a group like this please reach out to me, Wiebke Kilbert, at 724-799-3323 or veesb@yahoo.com.

An update from Compassion International on praying for our sponsored child, Maria:

We're living in a world full of unknowns right now. We don't know when this pandemic will end or what school and work will look like in the fall. And for many, all of those unknowns make us feel anxious and afraid.

What can bring us peace in the midst of the unknowns? For me, it's been prayer. Because what I do know is that we serve a God who hears our prayers and who is not surprised by what is happening right now.

The world needs our prayers right now. Each region Compassion serves in is dealing with the grief the pandemic is bringing to its people ...

- While Latin America is home to just 8% of the world's global population, it is now suffering half the world's new coronavirus deaths.
- Food shortages, supply chain challenges, rising food prices and loss of income due to COVID-19 restrictions mean that millions across Africa are facing food insecurity.
- The pandemic is unraveling decades of progress in health, education and other advances for children in South Asia, pushing up to 120 million more children into poverty.

Here, you will find an update from the country where Maria lives. Also included is a link to more information, including stories, specific prayer requests and a video update.

I hope this information enriches your prayers for Maria as you learn more about what she is facing as the pandemic progresses.

On behalf of your sponsored child, I want to say thank you for your continued support and prayers. God is in control, and we are so grateful to partner with him in lifting up these precious children during this difficult time.
