

TAMMY FELTON

Tammy Felton is an award recipient and graduate of the University of North Texas, with a major in Dance and a minor in Child Psychology and Social Sciences. She was the Artistic Director for the Chi Tau Epsilon Honor Society for Dance at UNT. Tammy specializes in early childhood development in the arts, and has extensive ballet and modern training. With over 30 years of teaching experience ranging from private schools, companies, studios, junior colleges to universities, it is obvious that she is gifted with the ability to teach all ages, all levels, and multiple dance forms. Tammy's constant goal is to create a higher quality program implementing proper technique & terminology fulfilling a relevant need for the evolving future of gifted dancers!

Her professional work includes: Center Stage Drama, TIGI World Release /Las Vegas, Special Olympics ceremonies/RSC Productions , Cecchetti Council of America 2005 *ADTS Nationals * Toni & Guy, Inc. *American College Dance Festival * Southern Methodist University * University of North Texas * Donnette Durham and Dancers *Chicago National Choreography Series IV *Lloyd-Paxton AIDS Benefit *Dance for the Planet *Savino & Co. *Richland College *NBA Dallas Mavericks featured halftime performer*Versace *City of Dallas *Dallas Morning News Dance Festival