

DANIA

By John Lipinski

Dania...Dania....Dania...Dania

Tell me you're leavin' Pennsylvania, give me some hope I might retain ya
If you say no, I couldn't blame ya, if you say yes, I will sustain ya
Put your trust in me now, Dania, I'll never leave you lonely, Dania
Just say, you'll always want me, Dania, and be my one-and-only, now

We can go fishin' on the pier, I'll make the food and bring the beer
I'll whisper softly in your ear, say the words you long to hear
Holding hands down at Mambo's, dancin' close to the piano
No one will notice that we're gone, alone tonight, it can't be wrong

Just put your trust in me now, Dania, I'll never leave you lonely, Dania
Just say, you'll always want me, Dania, and be my one-and-only, now

We'll take a ride up on the causeway, singin' songs you've never heard
Bed and breakfast, by the highway, we could stop, just say the word
A glass of wine, by the firelight, the flames a-dancin' in your eyes
Tell me you love me in the morning, afternoon, and ev'ry night

Tell me you're leavin' Pennsylvania, give me some hope I might detain ya
If you say no, I wouldn't blame ya, if you say yes, I will sustain ya
So put your trust in me now, Dania, I'll never leave you lonely, Dania
Just say you'll always want me, Dania, and be my one-and-only, now

Just come on back from Pennsylvania, give me some hope, I might retain ya
If you say no, I couldn't blame ya, if you say yes, I will sustain ya
So put your trust in me now, Dania, I'll never leave you lonely, Dania
Just say you'll always want me, Dania, and be my one-and-only, now
Just say you'll always love me, Dania, and be my one-and-only, now
