To provide the same quality, personalized art instruction our Muses rely on, while adapting to new health regulations and specifications, we request that all members strictly adhere to the following guidelines:

Members are required to register for all classes in advance by completing the registration form. Members can choose, using the drop-down menu, one program/activity per day. Select either the morning or the afternoon time preference. Also you must click NONE for any day you do not wish to register.

Participation is limited – therefore we ask that if you are not able to keep your scheduled time, you notify us in order to offer the time slot to those placed on our waiting list.

Please note: your registration is not valid until you have received a confirmation email.

No walk-in will be allowed during this time.
