The Grand Hotel - Mackinac Island

October 20th - 22nd

Mackinac Island

Mackinac Island is located in Lake Huron, at the eastern end of the Straits of Mackinac next to the state's Upper Peninsula. The island was home to an Odawa settlement before European exploration began in the 17th century which led to the establishment of Fort Mackinac by the British during the American Revolutionary War.

Its an island where the automobile never replaced the horse and carriage. You have lodging properties where corporations never replaced family ownership. You have the Fort era where the British couldn't permanently replace Americans. You have Fudge Stores where box recipes never replaced our 19th Century recipes. You have a place to leave your routine, discover the rhythm of waves and horse-clops and a place that getting to is half the fun.

The Grand Hotel

The Grand Hotel is a historic hotel located at the eastern end of the island. Constructed in the late 19th century, the facility advertises itself as having the world's largest porch.

The Grand Hotel is well known for a number of notable visitors, including five U.S. presidents, Russian presidents, inventor Thomas Edison, and author Mark Twain.
