

YOU GOTTA BELIEVE

By John Lipinski

What do you believe in, to whom, do you give your passion
What floats your boat, makes you swoon, rivets your attention
A baseball player, actress, author or musician
Don't place your faith in mortal man, what happens when they lose

You gotta believe, it's all or nothing
You gotta believe, there is no halfway
You gotta believe, to earn salvation
You gotta believe, come judgment day

It's okay to holler, you may want to rant and rave
To Him we pledge allegiance, through sacrifice He saved
When your mind begins to wander, lose focus along the way
Now if you want that place in heaven, be careful who you choose

You gotta believe, there's no other way
You gotta believe, hear what I say
You gotta believe, the answer today
You gotta believe, come judgment day

If the feeling's missing, can't find it in your heart
It's in His time, not yours or mine, just leave the door ajar
Don't give up on Jesus, that wouldn't be too smart
Commit your life to the Lord, you'll find you raised the bar

You gotta believe, there's no other way
You gotta believe, hear what I say
You gotta believe, the answer today
You gotta believe, judgment day!
