General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States:

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code on page 3 and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships above.

What is FATCA reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code on page 3 and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9.

a. Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note. ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as" (DBA) name on line 2.

c. Partnership, LLC that is not a single-member LLC, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name as shown on the entity's tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

d. Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

e. Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a "disregarded entity." See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner's name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner's name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on line 2, "Business name/disregarded entity name." If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 3

Check the appropriate box in line 3 for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box in line 3.

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the name on line 1 is an LLC treated as a partnership for U.S. federal tax purposes, check the "Limited Liability Company" box and enter "P" in the space provided. If the LLC has filed Form 8832 or 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, check the "Limited Liability Company" box and in the space provided enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If it is a single-member LLC that is a disregarded entity, do not check the "Limited Liability Company" box; instead check the first box in line 3 "Individual/sole proprietor or single-member LLC."

Line 4, Exemptions

If you are exempt from backup withholding and/or FATCA reporting, enter in the appropriate space in line 4 any code(s) that may apply to you.

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Therefore, if you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave this field blank. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) written or printed on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on this page), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, or 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

This practice is subject to change at the discretion of the Insurer.
- I. Policy applications for any Insurer will be issued and commissions paid by the Insurer.

- A. As long as this Agreement remains in effect, all first year and renewal commissions shall be paid as they accrue; however, any such payments are subject to the schedule of commissions in effect at the date the first full premium is received by the Insurer, the provisions and rules of the Insurer regarding minimum first year and renewal commissions required to issue a check.
- B. During any consecutive 12-month period following the termination of this Agreement, total renewal commissions are less than the minimum required by the Insurer, vesting automatically terminates and no additional commission payments will be due from the Insurer.
- C. In the event this Agreement is terminated by the death of the REPRESENTATIVE, all first year and renewal commissions shall be paid as they accrue, subject only to the terms and conditions of paragraphs A and B immediately above. In the absence of a properly executed beneficiary designation on file with the Insurer, all such payments, if any, shall be made to the surviving spouse and at the death of the surviving spouse to the estate of said spouse. The Insurer shall have a prior right and offset to all commissions and fees payable hereunder toward any indebtedness and/or other obligations due from the REPRESENTATIVE or anyone under the Jurisdiction of the REPRESENTATIVE to any Primary Company and/or Affiliated Company/ies with interest at the legal rate. This prior right and offset shall not be extinguished by the termination of this Agreement. Following the termination of any Representative under the Jurisdiction of the REPRESENTATIVE, should the amount in any commission account of that Representative be insufficient to repay any amount due the Insurer, the debit will become the responsibility of the REPRESENTATIVE, in accordance with the Insurer's then current debit collection procedure.
- E. Neither the Agreement, any duties or delegation under this Agreement, nor the commissions or fees accruing hereunder, nor any interest herein, nor any right or claim created hereby or arising by reason of the REPRESENTATIVE acting hereunder, shall be assignable, except upon the written consent of the Insurer.
- F. Forbearance or failure of the Insurer to insist upon performance of this Agreement or to enforce its rights hereunder, shall not constitute a waiver of its rights or privileges hereunder or of its subsequent right to insist upon such performance.

- G. This Agreement, including the Appointment Application and any Commission Schedule(s) incorporated as part of the Agreement, contains all promises, inducements and representations between the parties. This Agreement supersedes any and all previous Agreements between the parties herein pertaining to the solicitation of the Insurer's products and the payment of monies to the REPRESENTATIVE provided, however, that rights or obligations which have already accrued (and would survive termination) under any previous contract between the Insurer and the REPRESENTATIVE shall not be hereby impaired.

It is expressly agreed that termination of this Agreement shall not terminate this provision.
- K. The REPRESENTATIVE agrees to maintain complete and accurate records of the marketing and sale of the Insurer's products. The Insurer reserves the right to inspect such records and other documents in each REPRESENTATIVE's files that relate to the marketing, attempted sale or sale of the Insurer's products. If the Insurer chooses to inspect such records, it will endeavor to do so during normal business hours and after giving reasonable notice, unless, in the judgment of the Insurer, unusual circumstances require inspection at other times or inspection without prior notice. This provision shall survive termination of this Agreement for a period of two (2) years.
- L. For as long as this Agreement is in force, the REPRESENTATIVE will maintain Errors and Omissions (E&O) coverage and will provide the Insurer annually proof of such E&O coverage in a manner acceptable to the Insurer.
- M. If the REPRESENTATIVE is served with a regulatory inquiry or legal papers involving Insurer business, the REPRESENTATIVE shall immediately notify the Insurer by sending to that Insurer's Compliance Officer, a copy of the papers, served by overnight delivery, by the end of the business day next following the day of receipt by the REPRESENTATIVE.

- O. When the Insurer assigns to the REPRESENTATIVE any agency not recruited by the REPRESENTATIVE, then the Insurer may reassign that agency to another upline of the Insurer's choice at any time and without the necessity of a release from the REPRESENTATIVE. If the Insurer wishes to remove any agency recruited by the REPRESENTATIVE from the Jurisdiction of the REPRESENTATIVE, the Insurer will negotiate a release; however, such release will not be unreasonably withheld by the REPRESENTATIVE.
- P. REPRESENTATIVE is not entitled to participate in any REPRESENTATIVE benefit programs except those which are provided by the Primary Company. REPRESENTATIVE is not eligible to participate in, or to receive any benefits from, any programs provided by the Affiliate Company/ies.
- Q. Disputes arising under this Agreement shall be subject to the laws of the state where the insurer engaged in the dispute is located.
- R. The area within which the REPRESENTATIVE shall have the right to represent the Insurer is not assigned exclusively to the REPRESENTATIVE.
- S. REPRESENTATIVE agrees to conform to all regulations of the Insurance Department and the insurance laws in the state(s) in which the REPRESENTATIVE is conducting Insurer's business.
- T. REPRESENTATIVE understands and agrees that (i) the Primary Company may amend the Agreement or the Company's policies, rules and procedures, in order to comply with changes in laws or regulations, or, as the Company deems appropriate related to changes in laws or regulations, through communication of any such amendment to REPRESENTATIVE, and (ii) For purposes of any such amendment, communication may include, but not be limited to, posting of amendment information on the Primary Company's websites or other means of making such information known or available to the agent.

- C. This Agreement may be terminated with or without cause by any Insurer (subject to provisions D and E below) or the REPRESENTATIVE by sending written notice of such termination to the last known address of the other party.
- D. Upon termination, the REPRESENTATIVE shall immediately pay in cash to the Insurer all sums that are due or become due hereunder and shall immediately deliver to the Insurer all materials connected with the business of the Insurer and belonging to the Insurer. Such materials include, but are not limited to, rate cards, letters, records, computer software, general supplies or any and all other indications of agency provided by the Insurer. It is expressly agreed that termination of this Agreement does not release the REPRESENTATIVE from continuing liability to the Insurer for immediate repayment of any and all unearned first year commissions or bonuses.
- E. Termination of this Agreement by the Primary Company terminates all contracts with Affiliated Company/ies without specific notice to the REPRESENTATIVE required by the Insurer. However, any Affiliated Company may terminate its agency relationship with the REPRESENTATIVE, which will not, of itself, terminate the Primary Company agency relationship. Upon termination, the Insurer may assign a servicing agency; however, such assignment will not of itself affect the vesting of existing business.
- F. Termination of this Agreement automatically terminates any previous Agreement to represent the Insurer that terminated the Agreement.

Accordingly, in the event of a breach or a threatened breach by Business Associate of the terms of this Addendum, Insurer shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief. Nothing herein shall prohibit Insurer from pursuing any other remedies available to it for such breach, and Insurer's rights under this Addendum related to injunctive relief, if any, shall be cumulative.

11. Interpretation. This Addendum governs the obligations of Business Associate and Insurer with respect to privacy issues only, and the Agent Agreement shall govern as to all other issues. If there is any conflict between the Agent Agreement and this Addendum, this Addendum shall control. Any ambiguity in this Addendum shall be resolved in favor of a meaning that permits Insurer and Business Associate to comply with HIPAA, the Privacy Rule, the Security Rule and HITECH.

To the extent that new state or federal laws change a Business Associate's obligations under this Addendum, this Addendum shall automatically be amended to include such changes. (ii) For purposes of any changes, Insurer's communication to the Business Associate may include, but not be limited to, posting of the information on Insurer's websites or other means of making such information known or available to the Business Associate.
13. Compliance With Laws. Business Associate shall comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations, including the Insurer's published policies, rules and procedures, at all time, and as may be adopted in the future. To the extent that state laws are more stringent than the HIPAA regulations, any use or disclosure of PHI by Business Associate shall be made in accordance with the law. Any provision or ambiguity of this Addendum which conflicts with an applicable state or federal law shall be interpreted so as to permit compliance with HIPAA or the minimum requirements of any such statute or regulation.

AMERICAN GENERAL LIFE COMPANIES

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW PROTECTED MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This Notice is provided to you for informational purposes only.

You are not required to call or take any action in response to this Notice.

This Notice tells you about the ways in which American General Life Companies¹ (referred to as “we”) may use and disclose your protected health information (PHI) and your rights concerning your PHI. PHI is information about you, including demographic information (like your name, address, or gender), whether oral or recorded in any form or medium, that can reasonably be used to identify you. This information may be collected from you or from members of the health care industry (like doctors or employee benefit plans) and relates to your past, present or future physical or mental health or condition, the provision of health care to you or the payment for that care.

We are required by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) to maintain the privacy of PHI and to provide you with this Notice about your rights and our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your PHI. We must follow the terms of this Notice while it is in effect. Some of the uses and disclosures described in this Notice may be limited in certain cases by applicable state laws that are more stringent than the federal standards.

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

We may use and disclose your PHI for different purposes. As appropriate for the particular insurance or plan, the examples below are provided to illustrate the types of uses and disclosures we may make without your authorization as permitted by law for claims payment, health care operations and treatment.

- Claims Payment. We use and disclose your PHI to health care providers (physicians), insurance carriers, the state or others for benefit verification and in order to pay for your covered health expenses. For example, we may share your PHI with a health care provider to assist with processing claims or to another health plan to coordinate and/or seek reimbursement for benefit payments. We will share the least amount of information so that payment can be made. Usually, this involves identifying you, your diagnosis and the treatment provided.
- Health Care Operations. We use and disclose your PHI in order to perform our health care activities including, but not limited to, quality assessment activities, underwriting, premium rating, premium collection, reinsurance, compliance, auditing, or other administrative activities, including data management or customer service. We may review your health information if it is time for us to reestablish your eligibility for coverage or to conduct reassessments for case review. HIPAA, however, prohibits any use or disclosure of PHI that is genetic information for underwriting purposes. Genetic information means information about (1) your or your family members’ genetic tests, (2) manifestation of a disease or disorder in your family members, or (3) your or your family members’ requests for, or receipt of, a genetic test, counseling or education, or participation in clinical research which includes such test, counseling or education.
- Treatment. We may use and disclose your PHI to assist your health care providers (doctors, dentists, pharmacies, hospitals and others) in your diagnosis and treatment. For example, we may disclose your PHI to providers to provide information about alternative treatments.
- Plan Sponsor. We may disclose your PHI to the plan sponsor for purposes that are described in the document that governs the specific plan. However, prior to any such disclosure, the plan sponsor will be required to certify that it will use your PHI in accordance with regulations governing the privacy of your PHI.
- Enrolled Dependents and Family Members. We will mail explanation of benefits forms and other mailings containing PHI to the address we have on record for the person who is enrolled in the health plan.
- Health Claim Vendors. We may contract with individuals or vendors who are sometimes called “Business Associates” to perform various functions on our behalf or to provide certain types of services. In order to perform these functions on our behalf or to provide these services, Business Associates may receive, create, maintain, use and/or disclose your PHI, but only after they agree in writing with us to implement appropriate safeguards and maintain the privacy of your PHI. For example, we may disclose your PHI to a Business Associate to administer claims or to provide support services, such as underwriting services, actuarial services, legal services, care coordination services, utilization management, pharmacy benefit management or subrogation, but only after the Business Associate enters into a written agreement with us.

¹ For purposes of this Notice, the American General Life Companies and the pronouns “we,” “us,” “our” and “plan” refer to the individual health and long term care and group health products underwritten by American General Life Insurance Company* and The United States Life Insurance Company in the City of New York.

- Workers' Compensation. We may disclose PHI to the extent necessary to comply with state law for workers' compensation programs.
- Military and Veterans. If you are a member of the armed forces, we may release your PHI as required by military command authorities. We may also release PHI about foreign military personnel to appropriate foreign military authority.
- Government Audits. We are required to disclose your PHI to the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) when the Secretary is investigating or determining our compliance with the HIPAA privacy rule.
- Schools. We may disclose proof of immunization to a school where the school is legally required to obtain proof of an individual's immunizations before admitting the individual as a student, but only with the parent's consent (or, if the student is old enough, the student's consent).

USES OR DISCLOSURES REQUIRING AN AUTHORIZATION

- Psychotherapy Notes. We must obtain your authorization for any use or disclosure of psychotherapy notes, except in cases of (1) use by the originator of the psychotherapy notes for treatment, (2) use or disclosure by us to defend ourselves in a legal action or other proceeding brought by you, (3) use or disclosure when required for government audits (see Government Audits) or when required by law (see As Required by Law), (4) use or disclosure for health oversight activities regarding the originator of the psychotherapy notes (see Health Oversight Activities), (5) disclosure to coroners or medical examiners (see Coroners, Funeral Directors, Organ Donation), or (6) use or disclosure to avert a serious threat to health or safety (see To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety).
- Marketing. We must obtain your authorization for any use or disclosure of your PHI to make a communication promoting a product or service, except for communications in the form of (1) any face-to-face communication we have with you or (2) a promotional gift of nominal value that we provide. If marketing involves our receipt of any payment from or on behalf of a third party whose product or service is being described, the authorization will state that such payment is involved.
- Sale of PHI. We must obtain your authorization before any sale of PHI, and such an authorization will state that the disclosure will result in our receipt of remuneration. It is not considered a sale of PHI, however, if the disclosure is required by law or is for purposes of (1) a sale, transfer, merger or consolidation of all or part of us with or into another HIPAA-covered entity, (2) our subcontractors (or others on their behalf) performing legitimate services and receiving payment from us only for the performance of such services, or (3) for any other purpose permitted by the HIPAA privacy rule where the only remuneration we (or our business associates) receive is a reasonable cost-based fee for preparing and transmitting the PHI or such other fee expressly permitted by law.

All other uses or disclosures of your PHI not described in this Notice will be made only with your written authorization. You may revoke an authorization at any time in writing, but such revocation will not apply to the extent that we have already taken action in reliance on your authorization. To the extent the authorization was obtained as a condition of obtaining insurance coverage, other law may provide the insurer with the right to contest a claim under the policy or the policy itself.

YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

You have certain rights regarding your PHI that we maintain about you.

- Right To Access Your PHI. You have the right to review or obtain copies of your PHI, with some limited exceptions. Your request to review and/or obtain a copy of your PHI records must be made in writing. We may charge a fee for the costs of producing, copying and mailing your requested information, but we will tell you the cost in advance. We may also deny such request. You have a right to receive electronic copies of your PHI but only to the extent it is electronically maintained.
- Right to Amend Your PHI. You have a right to amend your PHI with a written request specifying the reason you are seeking the amendment.

We have the right to deny your request to amend your PHI records if (1) we did not create the record, unless you provide a reasonable basis for us to believe that the originator of the PHI is not available to act on the requested amendment, (2) you ask us to amend information that is not part of your record, (3) you ask us to amend information that is not available for inspection under HIPAA, or (4) you ask to amend a record that we determine to be accurate and complete. If we deny your request to amend, we will notify you in writing and include the reason for the denial. You then have the right to submit to us a written statement of disagreement with our decision which will be added to your records, and we have the right to rebut that statement. If we agree to amend the records as requested, then we may also make reasonable efforts to inform others, including specific parties named by the consumer of the changes.

- Right to an Accounting of Disclosures. You have the right to receive an accounting of disclosures of your PHI made by us during the six years prior to your request. The accounting will not include disclosures of information: (1) made prior to April 14, 2003; (2) for treatment, payment and health care operations; (3) to you or pursuant to your authorization; (4) to correctional institutions or law enforcement officials; and (5) other disclosures that federal law does not require us to provide an accounting. The first accounting that you request within a 12-month period will be free. For additional accountings within the same time period, we may charge for providing the accounting, but we will tell you the cost in advance. Your request must be made in writing and must state the period of time for which you are requesting an accounting.

- Right To Request Restrictions on the Use and Disclosure of Your PHI. You have the right to request that we restrict or limit how we use or disclose your PHI for treatment, payment or health care operations. We may not agree to your request, except where the disclosure is for the purpose of carrying out payment or health care operations and is not otherwise required by law and the PHI pertains solely to a health care item or service that you (or others, other than the insurer, on your behalf) paid for in full out-of-pocket. If we do agree, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed for an emergency. Your request for a restriction must be made in writing. In your request, you must clearly state (1) what information you want to limit; (2) whether you want to limit how we use or disclose your information, or both; and (3) to whom you want the restrictions to apply.
- Right To Receive Confidential Communications. You have the right to request that we use a certain method to communicate with you or that we send information to a certain location if the communication could endanger you. Your request to receive confidential communications must be made in writing. Your request must clearly state that all or part of the communication from us in the usual manner could endanger you. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted. We will accommodate all reasonable requests.
- Right to a Paper Copy of This Notice. You have a right at any time to request a paper copy of this Notice, even if you had previously agreed to receive an electronic copy. You may obtain a copy of this Notice by contacting our Privacy Officer. See the end of this Notice for the contact information.
- Contact Information for Exercising Your Rights. You may exercise any of the rights described above by contacting our Privacy Officer. See the end of this Notice for the contact information.
- Breach Notification Requirements. American General Life Companies will comply with the requirements of the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act (“HITECH”) and its implementing regulations, including the final HIPAA Omnibus Rule, to provide notification to affected individuals, HHS, and the media (when required) if we or one of our business associates discovers a breach of unsecured PHI. Unsecured PHI means PHI that is not secured by a technology standard that renders PHI unusable, unreadable, or indecipherable to unauthorized individuals.
