

Framingham Centre Nursery School Anti-bullying Policy

Framingham Centre Nursery School believes that all students have a right to a safe and healthy school environment. Bullying of any type has no place in our school setting. Framingham Centre Nursery School will endeavor to maintain an atmosphere free of bullying and one that promotes mutual respect, tolerance and acceptance. Framingham Centre Nursery School will not condone behavior that infringes on the safety or emotional well-being of any student.

Bullying is defined as the act of one or more individuals intimidating one or more persons through verbal, physical, mental or written interactions. Bullying can take many forms and occur in virtually any setting. It can create unnecessary and unwarranted anxiety that will affect attending school or participating in or attending special or extra-curricular activities.

Definition of Bullying:

Examples of bullying include but are not exclusive to:

1. Intimidation, either physical or psychological,
2. Threats of any kind, stated or implied,
3. Assaults on students, including those that are verbal, physical, psychological and emotional,
4. Attacks on student property.

Responsibilities

The Framingham Centre Nursery School Board of Directors expects administrators to make clear to students and staff that bullying on the Framingham Centre Nursery School premises or at school-sponsored functions will not be tolerated and will be grounds for disciplinary action up to and including suspension and expulsion for students, and termination for employees.

The Framingham Centre Nursery School Board of Directors will promptly and reasonably investigate allegations of harassment, including bullying. The Director will be responsible for handling all complaints by students, parents or staff alleging harassment, including bullying.
