We did find out some info in regards to the insurance catastrophic fund and that the insurance companies are using social media to push their campaign forward. We are working on getting information regarding this thru the open meetings act. The governor has asked for an audit on this as well. companies are making Please go online and read up on this and get with your Reps and let them know that we don't want this.

We have voted on the t-shirt design and hope to have them by the first bike night. We still need sponsors.

Wally has bike raffle tickets. Ge with him if you need some.

He also has Field meet tickets. Get them early..$15 for single, $25 for couple for the weekend. After May 31st the is no couple discount.

It has been decided and voted on to have a region party only this year due to some unforeseen issues. This will be held the 3rd weekend in July. More to follow.

We need a new photographer for bike nights and Dawn G stepped up and will take over.

If you have any issues that need to go to the board, get with Wally and it will take your issues to the next Abate board meeting.
