

QUESTION THE EVIDENCE / UPHOLD THE LAW / PROTECT YOUR RIGHTS

Southern California Murder Attorney

A skilled defense attorney is an obvious first step after a murder charge but the careful choice of a lawyer is crucial to ensuring that your rights are protected and that the best possible result is obtained, given the circumstances. Southern California County criminal defense attorney Antonio J. Bestard has successfully represented many individuals charged with murder. His success in homicide cases has been obtained by either tailoring a favorable agreement for the client, winning a jury trial, or having the case thrown out of the courts as a result of a legal mistake made by the police, the district attorney or the courts.

Simply put: the police and prosecutors do NOT have your best interests in mind after a murder charge is made. Their job is to quickly convict you based on the evidence obtained and move on to the next case. Antonio J. Bestard has nearly two decades of experience representing clients in COMPLEX and HIGH PROFILE murder cases and finding a way to win, especially as they relate to:

GANG INVOLVEMENT / THREE STRIKES / DEATH PENALTY

Being charged with a serious felony crime like murder does NOT mean that you are guilty. The burden of proof is on the prosecution and it's Antonio J. Bestard's job to question all the evidence and methods used by the police and prosecution to mount their case. Antonio J. Bestard's comprehensive knowledge of California and federal law gives him the edge in identifying creative solutions for his clients and legal errors on the part of the prosecution. He has successfully resolved many of these cases through out-of-court negotiations, resulting in acquittals, dismissals and reduced sentences that could never have been obtained by less experienced or less aggressive defense counsel.

DEATH PENALTY

California criminal defense lawyer Antonio J. Bestard has represented clients facing the death penalty as well as being involved in proceedings challenging their conviction in the state or federal courts. Antonio J. Bestard applied and was accepted to serve by the Judges and attorneys who determine who has the knowledge and experience to represent a defendant facing the "Death Penalty" in Southern California County. This is an elite group of California attorneys who are required by the California Supreme Court to stay on the cutting edge of the law by demonstrating that they have taken courses on issues relating to death penalty cases every year in order to be allowed to be appointed by the courts to represent individuals whose life is on the line.

PLEA AGREEMENTS / TRIAL / APPEALS

See a brief list of some SUCCESSFUL RESULTS for clients charged with serious felony offenses.

Don't let a murder charge ruin your life and separate you from your family. Contact Southern California murder defense lawyer Antonio J. Bestard today 24-Hour / 1-909-623-2629