Good afternoon, Nancy, I hope you are enjoying a nice day. My name is Trey Hoverson and this afternoon I stopped at the St. Leo Parish, Bonita Springs FL. There I requested a meeting with their current Priest.

That requested meeting was to initiate a formal announcement to be shared with the hierarchy of the Church. I personally delivered that announcement to Griselda, the receptionist, at St. Leo Parish. I attached a copy of that document for Bishop Duane's immediate review.

The attached document announces that I am an anointed Prophet of God. A direct descendent in the Line of Adam. Please know that this is not a joke and is easily verifiable. I have been empowered by God to fully understand and disclose the mathematics that organize and govern his righteous creation.

Specifically, this is the Return of Christ complete with the mathematical proof that clearly explains how eternal judgment works.

God instructed me to start with St. Leo to honor my parents. Please know that my parents were both born on July 24, 1951, in the same hospital only hours apart. Their birth location is Cooperstown ND which happens to be less than 100 miles from the exact geographic center of North America. I share this because the parents of anointed prophet are extremely important. They are literally the physical vessels of God's Salvation.

Please take this seriously and be prompt with responses. It is important that we coordinate as this mathematical revelation is about to overwhelm the entire world.

Godspeed

Trey
