

MANAGER'S DESK FOR SUNDAY, JUNE 17, 2018

WELCOME TO THE MANAGER'S DESK, I'M MIKE CORNELL.

HAPPY FATHERS DAY. FOR YOU FATHERS, SOME FAVORITE STORIES ABOUT THEIR DADS AS FOUND IN A COPY OF THE READERS DIGEST.

The world's most heroic dad

Our family sheltered in the basement after hearing a tornado warning. My husband told everyone to stay put while he got his cell phone from the car, in case the lines went dead. He didn't return for the longest time, so I went looking for him. I was upstairs calling his name, when I heard our phone machine click on. "Hi," a voice said. "This is Dad. I'm locked out of the house."

The world's toughest dad

I was on my way out of the house to meet with a cantankerous client, and I was dreading it. The look on my face must have given me away because my four-year-old daughter asked what was wrong. "I'm going to meet a woman who always yells at Daddy," I told her. "Oh," she said. "Say hi to Mom."

The world's proudest dad

On my parents' 50th anniversary, I remarked to my father that he and Mom never seemed to fight. "We battled," he said, "but it never amounted to much. After a while one of us always realized that I was wrong."

The world's most capable dad

My father was completely lost in the kitchen and never ate unless someone prepared a meal for him. When Mother was ill, however, he volunteered to go to the supermarket for her. She sent him off with a carefully numbered list of seven items. Dad returned shortly, very proud of himself, and proceeded to unpack the grocery bags. He had one bag of sugar, two dozen eggs, three hams, four boxes of detergent, five boxes of crackers, six eggplants, and seven green peppers.

AGAIN, HAPPY FATHERS DAY!
