Reaching for High Hanging Fruit

Explore Historical Trauma, Identify and Learn How to Turn 'Low Hanging Fruit' into 'High Hanging Fruit', and Proactively Position the Community to not Just Survive, but Thrive.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Dr. David Stovall Ph.D. is Professor of African-American Studies and Criminology, Law & Justice at the University of Illinois at Chicago (UIC). His scholarship investigates three areas 1) Critical Race Theory, 2) the relationship between housing and education, and 3) the intersection of race, place and school. In the attempt to bring theory to action, he works with community organizations and schools to develop curriculum that address issues of equity and justice. His work led him to become a member of the design team for the Greater Lawndale/Little Village School for Social Justice (SOJO), which opened in the Fall of 2005.

Dr. David Stovall

Dr. Carol L. Adams is President of Urban Prescriptives, Inc., a consulting firm that specializes in program and organizational development for educational, social, cultural and philanthropic institutions. Some of her key positions have included President and CEO of the DuSable Museum of African American History; Secretary of the Department of Human Services for the state of Illinois; & Director of Resident Services and Programs for the Chicago Housing Authority. For her exceptional work as a applied sociologist, social activist, and change agent, she has been the recipient of many awards, some of which include the Outstanding Humanitarian Award from the NAACP and the Illinois Board of Education Community Service Award.

Dr. Rolanda JW Spencer (formerly, West) is the co-founder and Executive Director of Alternative Education Research Institute and author of the seminal work Reexamining Reentry: The Policies, People, and Programs of the United States Prisoner Reintegration Systems (Rowman and Littlefield, 2017). Dr. Spencer is a former assistant professor of sociology at the University of Belize where she studied post-colonialism and colorism in the Caribbean and Central America and served as the Chief Researcher for the Great Belize Research Center evaluation of the country's domestic violence policies.

HONOREE

I AM ABLE will be presenting the inaugural Dr. Carl C. Bell Community Wellness Award and Scholarship to someone who has implemented effective strategies to enhance the West Side's ability to recover, heal, and thrive. Dr. Bell has graciously agreed to join us and present the award to the selected recipient. Criteria for and deadline of submission for the award will be released in April 2019. Stay tuned! Check our social media and website for details.

Dr. Carl C. Bell, M.D., D.L.F.A.P.A., F.A.C.Psych is currently practicing clinical psychiatry in Chicago, Illinois at Jackson Park Hospital Family Medicine Center and In-patient Medicine-Surgical Psychiatric Unit. In addition, he is an Emeritus Clinical Professor of Psychiatry at the University of Illinois School of medicine and he is the former Director of the Institute for Juvenile Research (Birthplace of Child Psychiatry) and Clinical Professor of Psychiatry and Public Health at the University of Illinois, School of Medicine. He is also former President/CEO of the Community Mental Health Council/Foundation (CMHC/CMHF).
