2019-2020 competition & exhibition

eligibility

The Five-State Photography Competition & Exhibition is a regional fine art competition open to any photographer living in Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Colorado. Any photographic process is eligible as long as it is original work created during the last three years and has NOT been exhibited in a previous Five-State Exhibition.

specifications

There are no size restrictions, however all entries must be framed and/or mounted suitably for professional gallery presentation – with secure hanging device (wire preferred). It is the artist's responsibility to provide appropriate surface protection for their photographs: glass, plexiglass, laminate surface, etc. Neutral matting and framing are recommended. Sculptural forms and diptychs or triptychs (as multi-framed single entries) are not eligible.

categories

When filling out the entry form, the artist must choose in which of the categories each piece is to be entered and ultimately judged: 1. Nature; 2. People; 3. Open. Any process is eligible in any category. For our information and to better serve visitor interest, you may include any special process information on the back of the entry (not required).

entry form & fees

A fee of $20 will allow the entry of two works. Two additional works may be entered for a fee of $5 each. Entry fees are non-refundable. Checks are to be made payable to the Hays Arts Council.

Please fill out (PRINT OR TYPE) the entry card, notification card, and identification tags, which are to be attached to the back of each entry. You must affix a stamp to the notification card for its return. Be sure to include method of return delivery and insurance value of all works. Forward or include your entry card and notification card with fees. Entry forms and fees are due by November 8, 2019.

juror

Blair Hayes (Los Angeles) is a photographer, and director/cameraman of television commercials, TV, and movies. His clients include McDonalds, Pepsi, Chevrolet, Mercedes, and American Express among others, with his commercials appearing during Super Bowls and The Olympics. His directing career began with the cult classic Jake Gyllenhall film "Bubble Boy" and he wrote and directed the television drama "Great Plains." His photographs have appeared in magazines and on billboards. Professional recognition includes Clio, Addy, Mobius, and Golden Trailer Awards.

awards

The jurors will bestow cash awards of $1,500, divided among the categories: Nature, People & Open (with no categorization of process).

sales

The Hays Arts Council will retain a 33 1/3% commission on all sales of work accepted into the exhibit. Please take this into account if designating a sale price. Payment for sold works will be made at the conclusion of the exhibit.

liability

Utmost care and handling will be given to all entries. However, the Hays Arts Council and the sponsors of the exhibit will assume no responsibility for the loss or damage to any work entered. All individuals working with this exhibition shall be held blameless for any and all liabilities arising from this exhibition. The Hays Arts Council shall assume the right to reproduce any entry for catalog or publicity purposes related to this exhibition or future exhibitions. The return of the entry form constitutes the artist's agreement with conditions set forth in this prospectus.

catalog

A catalog listing accepted works and reproductions of those winning cash awards will be published. Each accepted entrant will receive a copy of the catalog when the works are returned. Copies are available to any entrant upon request.

opening reception

All artists and their guests are invited to the opening and reception which is scheduled for Friday, December 6, 2019 from 7 to 9 pm at the Hays Arts Center Gallery.
