

I can't get away from this. Something is going on around you that has caused doubt or concerns to overrule what God has said to you. He will not let me write on something else today. He is trying to gain your attention. He is trying to embed His truth and purposes into your heart so you no longer question Him.

News Flash!

Has He not said, "I will do this?"
Has He not spoken truth to you?
Will He not make good on what He has said?

You betcha!!!!

We serve a God Who will not go back on His word. Holding fast to His spoken word to us produces results in lives.

"God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?" (Numbers 23:19).

Listen, God doesn't need to repent for things He has spoken. He's God. He doesn't make mistakes. If He told you something, He meant what He said. Did you catch this?

News FLASH!

He is not a man that He should repent (1 Samuel 15:29) because He has nothing to repent for. However, you need to repent for doubting Him and listening to something else other than what He said to you!

Everything that God said would happen before now, has happened, just as He said it would. God is absolute truth, not sometimes, not only when it serves His purposes, but all the time!.

When we walk in what God says we will overcome those situations because we walk in the truth. God is truth (Romans 3:4). Before the world began we were given hope eternal because God promised. He cannot lie (Titus 1:2). God knows all things, past, present, and future. He is the epitome of complete honesty. It is completely impossible for Him to speak untruths.

Aren't you glad that God is not a liar. He is not lying about what He has said. He is not lying about what He is doing. He not lying about what He's going to do either.

Nothing is hidden from Him. He sees the beginning from the end. He doesn't make mistakes. God's honesty means that He will fulfill every promise He has spoken.

Stop right now. Remind yourself that God is not like any human. He does not have the ability to let you down. He is the Lord, your God. He is holy. He is the most high. His love and compassion for you far outweigh anything of this world. If He said it, He meant it.
