In New York State people and black bears often find themselves living in the same areas. With frequent encounters nearly inevitable, it's good to know how to keep those encounters safe and enjoyable for you and the bears.

How to prevent bear problems

Proper storage of garbage and the removal of bird feeders during periods when bears are active are the two most important steps you can take to drastically reduce nuisance bear problems in your area.

- 🐾 Store garbage in cans or dumpsters and keep them in a secure place like a garage.
- 🐾 Put garbage out only on the morning of pickup. Burning and composting of garbage may attract bears.
- 🐾 Feed birds only from December 1 until April 1. During the rest of the year, you may be attracting more bears than birds.
- 🐾 Bird seed and garbage are favorite foods for bears. In many cases, bears will choose them instead of natural food sources.
