

Morgan, Thera J.

Thera Jane (Pitcher) Morgan, 75, of Pinconning, formerly of Caseville, died Saturday, May 9, 2009 at her son's home after a lingering illness.

Thera was born in Fairhaven Township Oct. 4, 1933 to the late Floyd and Mable (Deming) Pitcher.

She married Samuel Morgan Oct. 6, 1951, and he preceded her in death June 12, 2008.

Thera worked as the clerk for the Village of Caseville and was co-owner of Pinconning Fishery.

Thera Jane enjoyed watching golf, westerns on TV, doing her crosswords, reading and spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Thera is survived by her four children, Lynn Morgan (Rodney Heck), Samuel P. Morgan, Mark Morgan and Brett Morgan (Vickie Meisel). Also surviving are eight grandchildren, Melissa Nelson (Rich DeLano), Beth Ann Krenz, Mark Morgan II (Amy Rush), Samuel Morgan II, Nichole Hazzard, Josh (Kayla) Morgan, and Jason Morgan; seven great-grandchildren, Derek Daniels, Zachary Daniels, Nadine Nelson, Samuel Morgan III, Christopher Morgan, Anthony Morgan, and Emma Morgan; a brother and sister, Ronald (Peggy) Pitcher of Cass City, Norma (Don) Stewart of Caro; sister-in-law, Phyllis Pitcher of Elkton.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Larry Pitcher.

Special thanks to Marilyn and Cheryl from Heartland Hospice for helping us through our time of need.

There will be a small casual graveside gathering for Sam and Thera at Caseville Cemetery at 12:30 p.m. Saturday, May 23, 2009. Margaret Swartzendruber will officiate. There will be a light lunch following at Caseville Eagles Club at 1 p.m. Arrangements by Cremation Society of Mid-Michigan, 1-888-273-3553 www.cremationsocietymidmi.com.
