

ADAM FRANK SCHUCH

Died Dec. 30, 1995

Adam Frank Schuch passed away Dec. 30, 1995 in an Albuquerque, NM nursing home, after a long illness.

He was graduated from Aptos School and Caro High School and was awarded a BS in 1930 and MS in 1931 from Michigan State. He earned his doctorate from California Institute of Technology in 1950 and retired as a staff member and alternate group leader of the low temperature physics section at Los Alamos National Laboratory.

During World War II, Mr. Schuch served in the Asiatic-Pacific and European theaters of operation. He retired from the armed forces as a lieutenant colonel.

He is survived by his wife, Gretchen of Santa Fe; a sister, Edith Schuch Ewald of Unicomville; a brother Frank Schuch of Charlevoix and numerous nieces and nephews.

Burial was at Santa Fe Veterans Cemetery with military honors.