Presidents' Message

Dear Chapter Members,

Mah Nishtanah ha-layla ha-zeh mikol ha-leylot. ♬ Happy Passover, everyone!

We are in the middle of Passover and as we recited this line, it seemed to refer to our last year. How is this year different from all other years? It is exactly one year since our world shut down in many ways. We have sheltered, missed being with family and friends, celebrating special occasions, funerals, travelling, eating at restaurants, movies, theater and more. We are getting our vaccines and seeing a light at the end of the tunnel – and a long tunnel it has been. We must take baby steps – not enter life in the fast zone right away, have patience and let everyone get the vaccine.

We are so thankful for what seems like a new beginning – it is approaching spring and the flowers are blooming and there's a new spring in our step. We are thankful to our Brandeis Chapter for this last year of special events, Summer Camp, Study Groups – everything on Zoom. It wasn't exactly as we had planned, but we were able to do so many things, have so many experiences, see so many friends – not in person, but we were together! Thanks to everyone who helped make this year exciting and put the fun in fundraising for Brandeis.

On March 17, we had our Annual Meeting with our wonderful speaker, Rabbi Allouche. His talk was very inspirational! Thanks so much to Rabbi Allouche and to Sue Lawler and Jo Ellen Susman for arranging for him to speak. Thank you to Carol Abrams, Terriann Kleiner and Paula Eckstein for your hard work.

We are looking forward to our virtual University on Wheels on April 8 with Hadassah Lieberman as speaker. Please register!

We are so excited that we have Cooks & Books, a three-part series with famous chefs, that will be offered virtually to National and to Brandeis University alums, faculty and students. Thanks to Iris Wigal, Nancy Sacks-Goldberg, Joyce Grant, Beth Messer and Michelle Fischler for the endless months organizing this exciting fundraiser. Save the dates (May 5, May 12 and May 20) and watch for your invitation! Coming soon!

On April 21, at the Board meeting, we will have our Installation of new and returning members of our Board. Thank you to everyone on the Board and all members for their contributions to making this a successful Chapter. Hard to believe we have completed one year and are on to our new year!

We are gearing up for Summer Camp and Fall Study Groups. We would love your ideas and your involvement. We need activity leaders for Summer Camp and facilitators for Study Groups in the Fall. Everyone loves attending, but we need your help leading these groups. It's a wonderful way to get to know people in a smaller setting! We look forward to our lives normalizing while still being careful and getting together in person for Chapter events in the not-too-distant future (we mean it now!).

We wish you all a Happy Passover, a Happy Easter and a wonderful Spring! See you on the patios!

All the best, Linda & Jan, Presidents

MEN FOR BRANDEIS ACTIVITIES

Wednesday, April 14 at 12:45 pm AZ

On April 14, Bill Weiss will be talking to Men for Brandeis Activities regarding the history of the Jewish Mafia in the 20th century.

Bill is retired from the "old" AT&T. He spent a good part of his career in AT&T public relations organization preparing high-level executives for testimony to Congress and writing speeches for these executives. In retirement he has made a hobby of speaking about a variety of historical non-sectarian subjects to social and religious groups.

All meetings are conducted on Zoom. Members of the group must RSVP to the facilitator in order to receive a Zoom link to attend. Please make sure in advance that the name on your computer or other device reads out accurately as your name, so that you can be recognized and admitted from Zoom's waiting room.

Leith Baletin, MBA's facilitator, will be in touch with members via email with more detailed instructions.

For additional information, contact facilitator: Leith Baletin lbaletin@gmail.com 480-874-9434

Brandeis and Phoenix Chapter Happenings

A webinar from our chapter changed a student's life and career trajectory.

Last July, our chapter arranged for a Brandeis webinar discussion with Paul Rockower '03, executive director of the Jewish Community Relations Council of Greater Phoenix (JCRC). He spoke about his "quixotic career in public and cultural diplomacy," conducting public diplomacy programs around the world.

Ilana Krill, a Brandeis student from Rochester, NY, attended the webinar. She was so taken with what he said that she wrote to Paul after the webinar, requesting an informational interview. That email resulted in a 6-month internship as the first communications and public diplomacy fellow for the JCRC. Ilana's internship recently ended, and she wrote a poignant article in The Jewish News about her experience. You can read the article here.
