BULLETIN INSERT

4. If we were to live more fully into God's hope for the next five years, what would look noticeably different in our worship, service, and daily lives?

Scripture: "Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen." — Hebrews 11:1

Reflection:

Biblical hope is not wishful thinking—it is confidence that God is faithful even when outcomes are unclear. Imagining a hopeful future is an act of faith. This question invites us to picture what trust in God might look like if it shaped not only our plans, but our priorities, relationships, and witness in the world.

Household Prayer: Morning

Holy One, thank you for the gift of this new day.
Help me to stay attentive to your creation and mindful of your teachings
as I travel through it.
Empower me to see and spread the good news of your grace for all people. Amen.

Household Prayer: Evening

Holy One, thank you for the gift of today.
Thank you for all the ways that I saw your glory
and learned your teachings, beyond speech and words,
in the course of this day. Ps. 19:3
As I drift to sleep this night, draw me closer to you, my rock and my redeemer. Amen.
