INTERFAITH RELATIONS & ISRAELI ELECTIONS

A CONVERSATION ABOUT INTERFAITH RELATIONS
AND A UP-TO-DATE BRIEFING ON UPCOMING
ISRAELI ELECTIONS

Featuring

Gidon Ariel

Gidon Ariel is the founder and CEO of Root Source, an organization dedicated to promoting respectful relationships between pro-Israel Christians and Jews.

He made Aliyah from Queens, NY when he was 14. He spent close to a decade in advanced Jewish studies institutes (Yeshivas) and the Israeli Army. After 20 years in the Tank Corps, today he is a reserves officer in the IDF Spokesperson's office. A pioneer in Jewish-Christian relations, Gidon is a seasoned Hebrew and Judaism instructor and public speaker.

Gidon is also a delegate to the Central Committee (the Merkaz) of Prime Minister Netanyahu's Likud Party and ran for the Maale Adumim city council. He lives in Maale Hever, a suburb of Hebron in the West Bank, where he moved with his family in 2012. He is married with five children and is a delegate to the Merkaz (Central Committee) of Prime Minister Netanyahu's Likud Party.
