Biography

Michael Warren Pease, age 72, of Warren, Michigan passed away on Saturday, January 20th, 2024. Born in Bad Axe, Michigan to the late William "Warren" and Elizabeth "Betty" Pease. Michael was a devoted Lutheran man his entire life and loved the Lord. Michael stayed close with his parents his entire life and was beloved by his aunts Lena and Lydia, who greatly enjoyed spoiling Michael as he grew up. When he was older, Michael had a number of hobbies but most of all loved spending time with his friends who were his family. He knew all of the best spots to go out to eat together. An impeccable dresser, Michael was always dressed nicely no matter the day. An avid reader, Michael accumulated a large collection of books throughout his life. Michael's favorite holiday was Christmas. Michael's Christmas tree was nicknamed the "Bronner's Christmas Tree" because he would fit as many of the ornaments from Bronner's Christmas Wonderland as he could on it and even though it was a great deal of ornaments everyone always thought his Christmas tree was absolutely beautiful.

Michael will be greatly missed by all who survive him.
