Client Testimonials

Michelle Clein with Engel & Voelkers specializes in creating happy clients.

Here is what a few have to say:

When we started this adventure of selling Mary's magical hide-away so I could settle her complicated estate, who could have imagined the unique challenges we would encounter? Thank you for being so much more than a Realtor and for handling matters way beyond the usual scope of listing and selling a property: for procuring and overseeing all the professionals needed to perform difficult work before you could officially begin showings, for screening and prepping potential buyers for this unique situation, for safeguarding documents and memorabilia abandoned at the house, for the untold hours you committed to the project to bring this sale to an eventual speedy and successful conclusion with delighted buyers and a very relieved estate administrator. With inadequate words of great thankfulness,

- Annis L.

You were absolutely perfect. I will always recommend you because you are excellent!

My Realtor extraordinaire! I was constantly amazed by your knowledge of things that others would not pay any attention to; your due diligence made all the difference.

- Donna L.

Through all the challenges, you helped us with patience and humor.

No one has ever worked so hard for me in all the deals I have done. You accomplished what seemed impossible and you saved me from enormous stress. The overwhelming complications and details were too much, yet you handled everything.

I think the world of your service, attention to detail, research, knowledge of issues/regulations unique to Marin, negotiating ability, ability to work with a wide variety of people and basic invaluable advice.
