

How Deep? Omni-Present Deep....

Rachael Martin

I'm sure that someone today was enjoying the presence of the Lord at the same time today that He was answering my cry. I can only imagine how much the Lord intervenes with millions of people around this world as well as the assignments that our angels carry out. Yes, heaven is a busy place and our God never sleeps concerning you and me.

I just wanted to share a testimony and hopefully encourage you all to cry out – scream it if you need to – although God's hearing is perfect, lol – sometimes we need to work it out within ourselves.... today was living proof of that for me...

Today I had to make a phone call that I had been dreading because I've been dealing with this pharmaceutical insurance company for the past 6 months for a dear friend of mine. To give you an example of the depth I've dealt.... Two days alone last month, I spent 4 hours on the phone, that same week I had to call them every single day to do THEIR job. Long story short – I had to change the address so that I get her paperwork because I handle her bills and finances. I had faxed them a paper that gives me authorization last month and thought it was over for a time – well enter a few pieces of mail I received last week. Sigh..... I put them on the back burner and stared at them today and decided I better call before it's too late.

When I called, the unexpected gentleman on the other line said they didn't have a record of the form that I had faxed, [insert deep breath here] so before "going ape" I asked to speak to a manager – I told him that I really didn't have the time to waste debating that it was there – I had record of it being faxed, etc.... he got back on the line and told me there wasn't a manager available but he assured me that the form wasn't there. At this point I lost it... yes... me... I lost it! I said "what, does a little (company name) troll come dancing through there at night and delete files and steal papers while y'all are asleep?"

At this point the man began to laugh... I'm glad someone was finding all of this amusing... and I realized that he was making the most of what could have been a very unfortunate outcome. I asked for the fax number AGAIN and said thank you and have a good day – didn't wait - just hung up before I got myself in trouble....

So I faxed it – AGAIN – and I realized at this point that I was biting everyone's head off – my girls were asking homework questions, my dad asked me to move my car, my mom came through and asked if it was taken care of and my responses were guttural and on the cusp of erratic so I sat down and it may seem a little over-dramatic but in front of everyone I hollered this.... "LORD I NEED YOU TO PHYSICALLY SHOW UP AND CALM ME DOWN BECAUSE I'M NOT ACTING VERY CHRISTIAN LIKE RIGHT NOW!"

All of a sudden, my phone got an alert from one of my apps - it was an invite from a friend asking me to sing with her “People Get Ready – Jesus is Coming” !!!!!

Ok, maybe it wasn't Jesus physically showing up but the Lord knew it would be good enough for me and we all laughed! It was like the dam of aggravation broke and joy flowed in.

I've said this before – we don't believe in coincidence - we believe everything happens for a reason. Actions reap reactions. I believe it was Holy Spirit instantly providing my breakthrough that I needed emotionally. I also know that I need to handle my emotions better when it comes to this company and pray before I get on the phone!

The Lord loved me enough to answer my cry and I know I'm not the only one that He loved on today. The Bible tells me so. I pray that each one of you have your prayers answered – that the Lord hears your cries and moves on your behalf. Please click the button below to listen to the song I recorded today, and know Father's love for all of you runs deep enough to handle all things, nothing is too difficult for Him!

Colossians 1:17 - And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together

Acts 17:27 - that they should seek God, and perhaps feel their way toward him and find him. Yet he is actually not far from each one of us

Romans 8:38-39 - For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, ³⁹ nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.
