

Beverly Hills Times Magazine presents...

Haute Blondes & Barkin Bitches

June 6th, 500 guests enjoyed fun and fashion on the Garden Terrace at the Montage Beverly Hills. Straight off Cannes Film Festival red carpets and Fashion runways, 45 models walked in couture, casual and swimwear for men and women from A-list designers Shekhar Rahate, Shahla Dorritz, Xaviar Othon and Richard Bowman. Suzanne Takowsky, founder of the magazine said, "We support local business by showcasing retail, designers and products to increase visibility and buying spirit." Nataliya Joy Prieto produced the fashion show, music was by celebrity DJ Tomas Wolf, laser show by Mansour Entertainment, vendor booths and an incredible silent auction. Also on the runway, adorable rescue dogs looking for forever homes with the theme of the night, Adopt. Don't Shop! Emcee Stephen Takowsky said, "Thanks for supporting the Beverly Hills Times magazine for more than 16 years. This is our first of many upcoming fashion events over the next four months." Beverly Hills Financial and Insurance advisor Michael J. Krupin received "Businessman of the Year" award for years of community support to Beverly Hills.
