

Ashtead All Stars Netball Club: Weekly Update

W/E Sunday 17th September 2017

It was good to be back at netball this week, and lovely to see the girls all looking so keen and ready for the new season. It has been a busy week of trials, and I would like to congratulate all the girls who have been offered a place at AAS. Welcome to our fabulous club and I hope you enjoy the season.

Every Sunday, I try my best to send out a Weekly Update because I think it is nice to see what is going on in the rest of the club. This weekend we had two Adult matches, and one Adult match the week before, with the Juniors starting their matches next weekend with the U12/U13 Nonsuch fixtures. The Adults have had a fabulous start to the season. Results as follows:
