

Bruderick, Lois J.

Lois J. Bruderick, 73, of Elkton, died Good Friday morning, April 14, 2006, at Huron Medical Center. She was born July 15, 1932 in Detroit to Genevieve (Smith) Holcomb and the late Vernon Holcomb. They moved to Cass City when she was 9 years old and to Elkton two years later where she lived the rest of her life. On August 7, 1954, she was united in marriage to Raymond Bruderick at the Elkton Methodist Church. With her children in school, she began working as a paraprofessional at Elkton Elementary in 1967 retiring 25 years later in 1992. Lois was a member of the Elkton United Methodist Church and United Methodist Women. She was a member of the Laker Athletic Boosters, selling tickets at school sporting events for many years. She enjoyed getting together with her friends to play cards and travel with them on bus tours all over the United States. She also enjoyed spending as much time as possible with her grandchildren. Surviving are three children, Diane (Brad) McIlhargie, of Lake Township, Gayle (Fredrick) Reynolds, of Elkton, and Dave (Robin) Bruderick, of DeLand, Florida; eight grandchildren, Sarah (Ben) Hartwick, Jennifer Wright, Abigail McIlhargie, Natalie, Erin, Melanie Reynolds, Tommy Savage and Kelly Bruderick; two great-grandchildren, Alex and Melody; her mother, Genevieve Holcomb, of Elkton; and her very special friend, Eldon Dietzel, of Owendale. Preceding her in death was a brother, Lowell Holcomb. Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, April 18, 2006, at the Elkton United Methodist Church. The Rev. Pete Crawford, pastor, will officiate with burial in Riverside Cemetery, Elkton. Visitation will be from 2 to 9 p.m. on Monday at the Champagne Funeral Chapel, Elkton, and at the church from 11 a.m. until the time of the service on Tuesday at the church.
