

Poor Brennan's Feeling Down...

Brennan Kohl, in all of his red-haired glory, was not having a fantastic day on Saturday. Recognizing this, his coworkers attempted to cheer him up with no success. Finally, the Campcraft staff enlisted the help of the entire camp, throwing an outdoors-themed intertroop competition known as Paul Bunyan Field Day. Fighting their way to Third place was Troop 99, Second Place, Troop 1, and in First Place, Troop 78.

The scAvengeers

On Monday night, scAvengeers paid a visit to the Allen Memorial Dining Hall, asking for help in vanquishing a terrible foe, bent on taking over Camp Horseshoe. The Scouts responded, helping Chester County's mightiest heroes collect the elements they needed to defend the Camp. Collecting the third most items was Troop 62, Second was Troop 93, and the best sidekicks in camp were Troop 78.

Winter Olympic Extravaganza

On Wednesday night, Henry Zink expressed his undying love for anything and everything to do with the Winter Olympic Games. After importing 21 tons of pure Canadian snow, Henry and his cohorts helped the scouts in camp put on Horseshoe's very own Olympic games. Winning the Bronze Medal was the Fox Patrol from Troop 1. Taking the Silver was the Leadership Patrol from Troop 93, and taking home the Gold Medal was the Rattlesnake Patrol from Troop 78.

Down with Socks! Out with Shirts!

On Friday night, the staff decided that they were unhappy with how the Camp was being run. Led by Henry Zink and Christian Miller, the Horseshoe staff untucked, rolled down, and stormed out of the Dining hall, leaving just Mookie and the scouts to bring back the Staff. In Third Place was Troop 28, Second was Troop 151, and the most effective troop at putting those slackers back to work was Troop 6.

Obstacle Course

In Campcraft Saturday morning, Troops were invited to send their patrols to participate in the Obstacle Course. After a long morning of running and jumping, the results are in! Coming in third place was the Hawk Patrol from Troop 50, in second place, the Stag Patrol from Troop 78 and in first place, The Flying Eagle Patrol from Troop 78.

Swim Meet

On Friday morning, the aquatics staff laid down the gauntlet to the Troops in camp, and challenged them to come to the Swim Meet! Numerous Troops accepted the challenge, and the meet was on. However, there can only be one victor at the end of the day. Coming in third place was Troop 99, in second place, Troop 78 and in first place, Troop 50.

Track Meet

This Wednesday in Camp Horseshoe, the races were on! Troops competed in a wide variety of running events. In the end Troop 50 came in third place, Troop 23 in second place and in first place, Troop 78.

Speed Climb

In an effort to prove your troop's superiority in the art of arbitrary wall climbing, you sent your most dexterous scouts up to COPE for the Speed Climb on Monday night. Coming in third place was Troop 99, in second place Troop 50 and in first place, Troop 78

Inter-Troop Shoots

Archery

On Tuesday night, scouts put on a dazzling display of flying arrows. Emerging from the fanfare of bows and arrows was Troop 78 in Third Place, in Second Place Troop 50, and in First Place, Troop 151.

Rifle + Shotgun

Scouts gathered to test their abilities with rifles and shotguns. After blasting their way through targets and clay pigeons, the sharpshooters of camp were determined. Coming in Third Place was Troop 1, in Second Place Troop 6, and in First Place, Troop 93.

Turtle Derby

The turtles once again lumbered onto the parade field for the ever-exciting turtle derby. The first turtle to make it out of the ring was "Bobert", trained by Christian Curry from Troop 78. Congratulations! Sorry Birdwell, no turtle soup tonight!

Clean Camp Award

This week, campers worked hard to keep their campsites clean. From scrubbing latrines, to patrolling for trash and sweeping out tents, one could smell Lysol and Pine-Sol all across camp. All for what? The Clean Camp award! Coming in Third Place was Troop 62, In Second Place Troop 50, and in First Place, Troop 78.

Marching

Retreat is a ninety-year-old tradition that we are proud to uphold. While the marching trophy might not have been around for all ninety years, there was quite the competition for it this year.

Sunday: 78

Monday: 78

Tuesday: 78

Wednesday: 78

Thursday: 1

Friday: 78

Saturday: 1

Silver Buckle

The Silver Buckle is awarded to a Scout who in the opinions of his fellow Scouts, has lived up to the Scout Oath and Law throughout the course of the week. Congratulations to all recipients!

Troop 50 Rothrock –

Seamus Corr

Troop 50 Roberts –

Nate Geiger

Troop 99 – David Wolf

Troop 6 – Trey Conrad

Troop 23 – Sam Feuket

Troop 151 – Teddy Pilko

Troop 1 – Jack Roadcap

Troop 62 – Zack Sharpe

Troop 28 – Parker Hayden

Troop 78 – Nathan Motel

Troop 93 – Mason Myers

Troop 66 – Ryan Conley

Staff Shorts

“What does a fellow have to do to get a yip?” SPH→HSR

“Send it, Full send” DD→HL

“ONE SCOOP!” SM→AMDH

“This looks great, except it’s all wrong” EE → BC

“Huzzah!” BK→CCTB

“Don’t let that man touch that mop!” ME→V/IB

Pictures of this week are on Social Media

 /horseshoebsa

 horseshoebsa

SPAAAAAAAAAAACE

On Saturday, Christian Miller and his staff decided that the aquatics department would be the first Horseshoe department on Mars. As a result, the Scouts were brought into a rigorous afternoon training program to help the AQ Department succeed. Coming in third place was Troop 50, in second was Troop 56, and in first place was Troop 78

Upgrades

On Monday night, Alex Keene decided that the antiquated facilities around Camp Horseshoe were no longer suitable for camper use, and that said facilities must be upgraded as soon as possible. However, due to the finite nature of the camp budget, we could not buy the upgrades, and instead had the scouts in camp build the upgrades instead. Third most effective at upgrading was Troop 56, in second was Troop 432, and in first was Troop 78.

American History Extravaganza

On Wednesday night, the horseshoe staff decided that it was time to celebrate the history that made America into the great nation it is today. As a result, the scouts set out around to camp to not only boost their AP scores, but also to discover new sides of historical events they thought they knew. Coming in third place was the Panthers Patrol from Troop 965, in second the Rock Rock patrol from Troop 50, and in first, the God Squad Patrol from Troop 432.

Out with Shirts! Down with Socks!

On Friday night, the staff decided that they were unhappy with how the Camp was being run. Led by Henry Zink and Christian Miller, the Horseshoe staff untucked, rolled down, and stormed out of the Dining hall, leaving just Mookie and the scouts to bring back the Staff. Collecting the third most staff was Troop 56, second was Troop 181, and putting the most of those lazy jerks back to work was Troop 78.

Obstacle Course

In Campcraft Saturday morning, Troops were invited to send their patrols to participate in the Obstacle Course. After a long morning of running and jumping, the results are in! Coming in third place was the Flying Eagle Patrol from Troop 78, in second place, the Rock Rock Patrol from Troop 50 and in first place, The Dragonz Patrol from Troop 965.

Swim Meet

On Friday morning, the aquatics staff laid down the gauntlet to the Troops in camp, and challenged them to come to the Swim Meet! Numerous Troops accepted the challenge, and the meet was on. However, there can only be one victor at the end of the day. Coming in third place was Troop 888, in second place, Troop 33 and in first place, Troops 78 & 965.

Track Meet

This Wednesday in Camp Horseshoe, the races were on! Troops competed in a wide variety of running events. In the end Troop 78 came in third place, Troop 56 in second place and in first place, Troop 965.

Speed Climb

In an effort to prove your troop's superiority in the art of arbitrary wall climbing, you sent your most dexterous scouts up to COPE for the Speed Climb on Monday night. Coming in third place was Troop 888, in second place Troop 965, and in first place, Troop 78

Inter-Troop Shoots

Archery

On Tuesday night, scouts put on a dazzling display of flying arrows. Emerging from the fanfare of bows and arrows was Troop 888 in third place, in second place, Troop 56 and in first place, Troop 78.

Rifle + Shotgun

Scouts gathered to test their abilities with rifles and shotguns. After blasting their way through targets and clay pigeons, the sharpshooters of camp were determined. Coming in third place was Troop 50, in second place, Troop 33 and in first place, Troop 965.

Turtle Derby

The turtles once again lumbered onto the parade field for the ever-exciting turtle derby. The first turtle to make it out of the ring was "Eduardo", trained by Joseph Barber from Troop 888. Congratulations! Sorry Birdwell, no turtle soup tonight!

Clean Camp Award

 This week, campers worked hard to keep their campsites clean. From scrubbing latrines, to patrolling for trash and sweeping out tents, one could smell Lysol and Pine-Sol all across camp. All for what? The Clean Camp award! Coming in Third Place were Troops 33, 78, and 56, In Second Place was Troop 965, and in First Place, Troop 432.

Marching

Retreat is a ninety-year-old tradition that we are proud to uphold. While the marching trophy might not have been around for all ninety years, there was quite the competition for it this year.

Sunday: 50
Monday: The Sun
Tuesday: 78
Wednesday: 78
Thursday: 78
Friday: 78
Saturday: 78

Silver Buckle

The Silver Buckle is awarded to a Scout who in the opinions of his fellow Scouts, has lived up to the Scout Oath and Law throughout the course of the week. Congratulations to all recipients!

Troop 50 – Joey Ibarra
Troop 181 – James Oh
Troop 56 – Bryce Johnson
Troop 103 – Jesse Fullington
Troop 33 – Logan Lippert
Troop 432 – Seth Sandberg
Troop 888 – Wyatt Smith
Troop 78 – Chris St. Clair
Troop 965 – Zach Ziegler

Staff Shorts

"So then I yeeted it into the ground at Mach 3." BC→BW

"Worriedism" SW→BK

"Nasty Sour Octopuses" DM→FD

"Oh Hey! Your legs work again!" KN→BC

"Dubyaaa" DC→VH

"Gonna chop you up with my big ol' stop sign, oh yeah, chop chop chop." SSC→HS

Pictures of this week are on Social Media

 /horseshoebbsa

 horseshoebbsa

