

Texas Bach Festival 2023

Danube River Cruise

An Immersive Experience to the Land of Beethoven, Haydn, and Mozart

April 22 -29, 2023 Danube River Cruise

- Prices from $4,999 per person including air.
- Optional three-night Prague extension available.

* pricing is per person, some restrictions apply, call for details. Limited time offer.

Travel to the capital cities of Budapest, Hungary; Bratislava, Slovakia; and Vienna, Austria along the Danube River. Additional stops in Austria will be made in the cities of Linz and Melk.

Sail with AmaWaterways and experience the luxury of more – more ways to discover, more ways to indulge and more onboard amenities. You will enjoy critically acclaimed dining, including The Chef's Table specialty restaurant, a selection of fine wines and beer at every lunch and dinner and engaging small-group excursions in every port.

Let the Danube create melodious memories where famous composers such as Mozart, Haydn, Beethoven and Strauss, Jr. lived, composed and performed.

Attend live performances in historic venues providing an engaging personal experience of great and timeless repertoire.

A $100 contribution will be made to the Texas Bach Festival for every guest who sails on this trip.

Escorted and tutored by Dr. Barry Scott Williamson, Artistic Director of the Texas Bach Festival. Barry is known for his dynamic performances of 18th-19th century repertoire. His stylistic knowledge and passionate affinity with the works of Johann Sebastian Bach and leading forward through Viennese Classicism.