Established in 2007 out of Greensboro, North Carolina, this rockin' 3-piece power pop band consists of talented artists and long-time musicians Chuck Folds, Steve Willard, and Eddie Walker. But this musical trio doesn't play just any ole' average music!

Big Bang Boom is a pop/rock music trio that plays parent-friendly children's music. Big Bang Boom is kids' music with a pop sensibility, aimed at being music that parents can feel good about letting their kids listen to and see live in concert!

Big Bang Boom performs children's favorites as well as their own original songs for kids. The live show is high-energy and demands that the kids get involved. From getting the kids on stage to join the "Spongebob Chorus" to the teachers vs. the kids hokey pokey challenge, Big Bang Boom has established the mantra, "There is no sitting down at a Big Bang Boom show!"

Big Bang Boom has also performed at the prestigious Kidzapalooza stage at Lollapalooza, the kids stage at Hangout Fest, and The Lake Eden Arts Festival. Their songs have won accolades in the John Lennon, USA, International, and Great American Songwriting Contests
