A Fascinating Demonstration by Denise Justice

In March the long-awaited acrylic demonstration by Denise Justice held us all spell bound. She began with a giant blank canvas that would completely humble most artists, and in just a short 90 minutes, she created an Italian coastal scene using the most unique tools - a tile float, some putty knives, a wet rag, and a big cooler top for a palette. She illustrated each technique, added unexpected colors and mixed her paints to create just the right shade within the palm of her hand! She showed us all just how much fun painting can be.

Now one might think that would produce an unusual result, but judge for yourself. It is truly wonderful! And those boats were added at the very last moment!

Denise really enjoys teaching her fun and unique style of painting and it shows.

Call her at 772.219.0078 or visit her amazing website at DeniseJusticeGallery.com. Thanks Denise !

Lynne Barletta

This accomplished Palm City artist began her professional career as an artist in Colorado at the early age of 14.

Lynne is an amazing colorist who creates unique, beautiful and brightly-colored art. She is the demonstrating artist for PCAA for the month of April. How lucky are we?!

Everyone is welcome !

Of course we want you to join PCAA, but if you aren't sure just yet, come, be our guest just once & see a demonstration! You'll want to be a member too. In fact, please bring along a friend or two also!

Stop by Menaros for Lunch

PCAA would like to thank Jay Mahoney of Menaro's Restaurant for inviting artists of PCAA to hang their artwork there. Stop by and see the art display. While there, grab some lunch too; the food, the staff and the atmosphere are all so good!!! So good in fact, we just booked our fun PCAA holiday lunch there for December 13th!

Thank you, Jay!
