

DONALD H. DEMING

1922 - 1982

Services were held Tuesday, Feb. 16 at the Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home, Sebewaing for Donald H. Deming of Bay Port, who passed away Friday, Feb. 12 at Bay Medical Center, following a brief illness.

He was born May 21, 1922 in Fair Haven Township, the son of the late Herbert and Daisy (Petty) Deming. He and Lucille Ann Martens were united in marriage on June 6, 1944 in Sebewaing. He was employed at Wallace Stone Company, Bay Port for 18 years before his retirement in 1968.

He is survived by his wife, Lucille; five sons, Frederick of Vassar, Dennis Lee and James, both of Bay Port; David of Caseville and Ronald of Elkton; three daughters, Mrs. James (Betty) Miller and Mrs. Donald (Rose) Eisiliones, both of Bay Port and Vera, at home; 19 grandchildren; seven sisters, Mrs. Paul (Dorothy) Ruby, Silver Springs, Fla., Mrs. William (Elsie) Miller, Fla., Mrs. Carl (Evelyn) Haag, Bad Axe, Mrs. Arthur (Ida) Haag and Mrs. Clarence (Ada) Eisinger, both of Pigeon, Mrs. Beatrice Hewitt, Elkton and Mrs. Chester (Genevieve) King of Naples, Fla. and one brother, Albert Deming of Elkton.

One son, Timothy Harold, and two brothers, Harold and Edward, preceded him in death.

Burial was in the New Bay Port Cemetery.