

For the Moment

Chance rendezvous,
Me and you,
After all these years
Of being apart.

Time,
Slowly, shifting time.
Sands of time
Are blown away.

And, for the moment
For the moment,
For the moment,
Let's forget the past.
Forget all about that
And, be in love.
The way we used to be.

For the moment.

When,
Ever I see you, then
I find my old heart falling
In love again.
For the moment

And, for the moment
For the moment,
For the moment,
Let's forget the past.
Forget all about that
And, be in love.
The way we used to be.

For the moment.
