

As I was preparing for church on Sunday, I was dialoging with the Lord about the day. I found myself in some ways grumbling over a few extra tasks needing to be done when He out of the blue spoke to me.

To be honest, I was shocked. Not that He spoke, but it was one of the moments where I wasn't really expecting Him to speak me because I was busy rambling about the day.

Maybe you never feel like this, but some times I feel like things around me are directed by the decisions of others.

I heard, "I am the God of direction. I direct your day. Not events. Not man. Me."

Today the Lord is saying to you,

"Your steps are established by Me. I delight in the way you go. I will instruct you and teach you with each step you take. My counsel and My eye is upon you. Don't not be afraid of the pathway you are on, I am with you always.

Trust Me. Don't lean on what you see. Don't lean on what you think. As you continue to acknowledge Me, I will straighten out your path.

I am leading you. Do you hear this? I am leading you in paths of righteousness for My name's sake. My name matters to Me. You carry My name. I do not forsake My people. I do not abandon My heritage.

You are sealed with My love. You carry the seal of My son's blood upon you. You are clean because of the Word I have spoken to you.

I am directing your steps. I know the plans. I know the way. I see the beginning from the end. There is no middle for Me. I am who I am and there is nothing that is too hard for Me.

Hear this. My path brings hope. My path brings healing. My path bring restoration. My path brings everlasting life. I am the God of direction and I do not mislead."

God's direction is assistance. God's direction points out the proper route. God's direction is guiding and governing. God's direction has purpose!

You are not directionless. You are not at the mercy of others. You are under His management. You are under His guidance. You are under His protection. Friends, you under His divine direction!
