

Heavenly Father,

Thank you Father for bringing me into another day with you. May the power of your Word change me today for Your word changes all things. Your word never leaves things the same.

I admit that I cannot face today without you. I ask you to help me pause and take time throughout the day to seek Your face, Your wisdom and Your counsel. Guard my mind today against worldly nonsense, and snares of the enemy that plot against Your purposes for my life.

Lord I know, all of mankind was made to associate with Your truth and I ask that Your manifesting presence be evident in my life. I acknowledge Your word is life and truth. I embrace the truth that Your word is good for me and to me.

I ask that my body, mind and spirit would respond to Your word. Thank you that NO weapon forged against me will prosper. Thank you that I am etched in the palm of your hand and my walls are ever before you.

Father, Your Word promises that You are my sure foundation, a rich store of salvation and wisdom and knowledge. May I be rooted firmly in Christ! My I be firmly rooted in Your purpose, I am so thankful that Your love surrounds all my activities as you relate to mankind through me.

In Jesus Name,
