

Sincerity of Heart

“Let us draw near to God with a sincere heart and with the full assurance that faith brings, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water” (Hebrews 10:22).

In life, we all get spiritual cuts and bruises. Every one has a story, and in one way or another have been abused, mistreated, rejected, lied about, treated unfairly, used, abandoned or kicked around. As I was preparing for today’s message I felt God say, “Stop agreeing with your circumstances for they are hindering or impacting how you respond to Him.”

When you are down in the dumps or wallow in your sorrow, it is because you are spending too much time focusing on the wrong things rather than God. That is why He admonishes and encourages us to set our affections on things above, not on things of the earth.

“Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth “ Colossians 3:2.

You have a choice today. You do not have to let those circumstances, hurts or disappointments continue to disrupt aspects of your relationship with God or others. Its time to separate yourself from those things that hurt you. It’s time to stop acting like God doesn’t know that are not fine and deal with what’s been hurting you.

He desires you to draw closer to Him in a deeper, more personal way! He wants to purify those areas that are working against you. God says you are NOT seeing your situation and things the way He sees them.

“Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight” Hebrews 4:13.

You are personally responsible for the level of your own spiritual fervor and depth of your relationship with Him. God sees the issues of your life and He sees the things that concern you. He wants you to bring them to Him. There is No place anyone can go that He cannot see. There is no place anyone can go that He can’t find them. This means that there is no situation that you are in that God doesn’t long for you to share when Him.

God always wants you to be real with Him. Sincerity of heart is something that He will always respond to. God is not against you. But He is against whatever takes His place in your heart.
