

STANLEY A. BAUMAN

Stanley A. Bauman, 66, Elkton, died Thursday at St. Luke's, Saginaw.

He was born March 30, 1916 son of the late Rev. Arthur and (Lillian Voss) Bauman, Howard City.

He and Jean Hardy were married June 28, 1940 in Detroit.

Mr. Bauman was a music instructor and school administrator for the Elkton-Pigeon-Bay Port School system from 1942 until his retirement in 1977, an active member of the Elkton United Methodist Church, an honorary emeritus of the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association, American School of Band Masters Association and the Michigan Principal Association.

Surviving are his wife, Lillian; three sons, Ken-nistan Bauman, Concord,
Roneldon Bauman, Dallas,

Texas, and Dwight "Ted"
Bauman, Cannon City,
Colo.; four daughters, Mrs.
Jake (Sharolee) Roberts,
Elkmound Wisc., Mrs. Allen
(Audrejean) Heydenburg,
Jackson, Mrs. Russell
(Deanna) Tibbits, Caro, and
Ms. Tamara Barbret, Grass
Lake; 12 grandchildren; two brothers and one sister.

Friends may call at the Champagne Funeral Home,
Elkton, after 7 p.m. Saturday.

Funeral services will be 10
a.m. Monday at the Elkton
United Methodist Church.
The Rev. Joel Hurley,
pastor, will officiate.

A graveside service will be also conducted at 4 p.m. at Pearson Cemetery, Sand
Lake. 1962