

HOLY COMMUNION
Eighth Sunday after Pentecost

August 3, 2025

8:00 am and 9:30 am

INTRODUCTION TO THE DAY

Today's texts offer instruction and encouragement for all who are occasionally overwhelmed by the "unhappy business" of life. Jesus urges us to take care and be on guard against all kinds of greed. We who have died with Christ in holy baptism have also been raised with him and are encouraged to elevate our thinking, seeking the "things that are above." To that end we seek the sustenance of the Lord's supper and the encouragement of God's word.

Christ, Whose Glory Fills the Skies

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in the key of D major (two sharps) and 4/4 time. It consists of three systems of music. Each system has a vocal line with lyrics and a piano accompaniment line. The lyrics are arranged in three parts, with each part having a corresponding vocal line and piano accompaniment. The piano accompaniment is written in a simple, homophonic style, using chords and single notes. The lyrics are as follows:

1 Christ, whose glo - ry fills the skies, Christ, the true and on - ly light,
2 Dark and cheer-less is the morn un - ac - com - pa - nied by thee;

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS (ABSOLUTION)

All may make the sign of the cross, the sign that is marked at baptism.

P In the name of the Father, and of the ✝ Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hid:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C Amen.

P Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Kneel/Stand

P Most merciful God,

C we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves.

We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us.

Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your holy name.

Amen.

- P In the mercy of almighty God,
Jesus Christ was given to die for us,
and for his sake God forgives us all our sins.
As a called and ordained minister of the church of Christ,
and by his authority,
I therefore declare to you
the entire forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father,
and of the ✝ Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.
- C Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Ecclesiastes 1:2, 12-14, 18-23

The teacher of wisdom who wrote Ecclesiastes sees that working for mere accumulation of wealth turns life into an empty game, a “vanity of vanities.” Nevertheless, he asserts in the next verse, it is good to find enjoyment in one’s work because such enjoyment is a gift from God.

A A reading from Ecclesiastes.

¹² I, the Teacher, when king over Israel in Jerusalem, ¹³ applied my mind to seek and to search out by wisdom all that is done under heaven; it is an unhappy business that God has given to human beings to be busy with. ¹⁴ I saw all the deeds that are done under the sun; and see, all is vanity and a chasing after wind.

^{2:18} I hated all my toil in which I had toiled under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to those who come after me ¹⁹—and who knows whether they will be wise or foolish? Yet they will be master of all for which I toiled and used my wisdom under the sun. This also is vanity. ²⁰ So I turned and gave my heart up to despair concerning all the toil of my labors under the sun, ²¹ because sometimes one who has toiled with wisdom and knowledge and skill must leave all to be enjoyed by another who did not toil for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. ²² What do mortals get from all the toil and strain with which they toil under the sun? ²³ For all their days are full of pain, and their work is a vexation; even at night their minds do not rest. This also is vanity.

A The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Later service only:

PSALM 49:1-12 (The congregation's verses are in bold face type.)

¹ Hear this, all you peoples; hearken, all you who dwell [|] in the world,
you of high degree and low, rich and [|] poor together.

² My mouth shall [|] speak of wisdom,
and my heart shall meditate on [|] understanding.

³ I will incline my ear [|] to a proverb
and set forth my riddle up- [|] on the harp.

⁴ Why should I be afraid in [|] evil days,
when the wickedness of those at my [|] heels surrounds me,

⁵ the wickedness of those who put their trust [|] in their goods,
and boast of [|] their great riches?

⁶ We can never ran- [|] som ourselves,
or deliver to God the price [|] of our life;

⁷ for the ransom of our life [|] is so great,
that we should never have e- [|] nough to pay it,

⁸ in order to live forev- [|] er and ever,
and never [|] see the grave.

⁹ For we see that the wise die also; like the dull and stu- [|] pid they perish and leave their wealth to those who come [|] after them.

¹⁰ Their graves shall be their homes forever, their dwelling places from generation to [|] generation,
though they call the lands after [|] their own names.

¹¹ Even though honored, they cannot [|] live forever;
they are like the [|] beasts that perish.

SECOND READING

Colossians 3:1-11

Life in Christ includes a radical reorientation of our values. Just as the newly baptized shed their old clothes and put on new garments, so Christians are called to let go of greed and take hold of a life shaped by God's love in Christ.

[A] A reading from Colossians.

¹ So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. ² Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, ³ for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. ⁴ When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

⁵ Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). ⁶ On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. ⁷ These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life. ⁸ But now you must get rid of all such things—anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth. ⁹ Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices ¹⁰ and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. ¹¹ In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all!

GOSPEL

Luke 12:13-21

In God's reign, the "rich will be sent away empty." Jesus uses a parable to warn against identifying the worth of one's life with the value of one's possessions rather than one's relationship with God.

P The holy gospel according to Luke.

G Glory to you, O Lord.

¹³ Someone in the crowd said to [Jesus,] "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me." ¹⁴ But he said to him, "Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?" ¹⁵ And he said to them, "Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions." ¹⁶ Then he told them a parable: "The land of a rich man produced abundantly. ¹⁷ And he thought to himself, 'What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?' ¹⁸ Then he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. ¹⁹ And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.' ²⁰ But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?' ²¹ So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God."

P The gospel of the Lord.

G Praise to you, O Christ.

APOSTLES CREED

☐ With the whole church, let us confess our faith.

☑ I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended into hell.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

COMMUNION

When giving the bread and cup, the communion ministers say

The body of Christ, given for you. The blood of Christ, shed for you.
and each person may respond

R Amen.

We Lutherans believe that the Body and Blood of Christ are “truly and substantially” present “in, with, and under” the forms of bread and wine. We invite to the communion all who are baptized and communing in this or another Christian denomination. We welcome children and others who are not communing to come forward for a blessing.

Music during Communion:

LAMB OF GOD (AGNUS DEI)

The musical notation for the Agnus Dei hymn is presented in four staves. Each staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The first staff contains the lyrics: "Lamb of God, you take a - way the". The second staff contains the lyrics: "sin of the world; have mer - cy on us.". The third staff contains the lyrics: "Lamb of God, you take a - way the". The fourth staff contains the lyrics: "sin of the world; have mer - cy on us.". The music is written in a simple, melodic style with various note values and rests.

The Time of the Church is the season after Pentecost, beginning with The Holy Trinity and ending with Christ the King. These weeks focus on Christ's ministry and teaching.

On Sundays for which the color is green, it is appropriate to omit either the Kyrie or the Hymn of Praise, reserving both together for festival seasons.

The liturgical color green, symbolic of growth, is used for the season after Epiphany and after Pentecost.

We'd love to add some new teachers when our Sunday school resumes in the fall. You can teach every single Sunday or just sometimes. You can prepare lesson plans and/or activities like crafts or science projects or just be an extra pair of hands in the room. We welcome anyone who has a lot or a little time to give to our children—and the free snacks are a bonus! Clearances are required but are fairly easy to obtain. Contact Sonya at education@augustrappe.org if you'd like to help!

TEA ON THE LAWN Hosts needed! Volunteers are needed to provide beverages and light snacks after both services during the summer. The long-standing tradition of Tea on the Lawn is a great way to get to know your fellow worshippers and spend a few minutes relaxing in the sunshine during the summer. Contact Gary Wessner (gtwess@comcast.net) if you have questions about hosting. The sign up sheet is in the Muhlenberg Center.
