LEARN FROM EXPERIENCE

ABOUT YOUR PRESENTER

David Hayes, Ph.D., received his Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from Louisiana State University. He is a former Commander in the Navy, where he served for one year in Operation Iraqi Freedom, as well as numerous other overseas assignments in the Navy Medical Service Corps. Dr. Hayes has been associated with LSU Mental Health since 1987, serving as senior staff, psychology internship director, and as a former psychology intern. He has been in private practice in Baton Rouge for twenty-two years. His clinical interests include individual and group psychodynamic therapy, psychology and the arts, Existential therapy, personality theory and psychopathology.

WORKSHOP OBJECTIVES

1. Describe the tenets of Existential psychotherapy.
2. Describe the ways in which Existential group psychotherapy differs from traditional group work.
3. List the types of clients for whom this approach is and is not suitable.
4. Identify the four ultimate concerns of Existential group psychotherapy.
