

Unless otherwise noted, Reverend Julie Newhall preaches and leads worship at the Unitarian Universalist Ocean County Congregation on the second and fourth Sundays of each month from September through June.

Julie was ordained as a Unitarian Universalist minister in Lincroft, New Jersey by three congregations. She has served several UU congregations in New Jersey as well as the Auckland Unitarian Church in New Zealand. Prior to receiving her Master of Divinity degree (summa cum laude) from Drew Theological School, she attended, graduated from and was ordained as an Interfaith minister by The New Seminary at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York.

In addition to her work at UUOCC, Julie speaks monthly at the Unitarian Universalist Society of South Suffolk in Bay Shore, Long Island, serves as a visiting minister and an independent chaplain and officiant at services to celebrate major life transitions and practices community ministry at Brookdale Community College where she teaches a variety of writing courses.

On a more personal note, she is an avid film goer and reader of Nordic noir thrillers, loves Asian food, visiting friends near and far, and watching the moon go by. She has lived in three other countries and is fluent in Dutch.
