

EVERYDAY GOURMET & FINE FOOD MERCHANT, LLC PRIVACY POLICY

About This Policy

This policy describes our privacy practices for the websites where it is posted.

Information We Collect

Contact Information: For example, we might collect your name and street address. We might also collect your phone number or email address.

Payment Information: For example, we might collect your credit card information when you make a purchase.

Demographic Information: We might, for example, collect your age. We might also collect information about the food you like.

Other Information: For example, we collect IP addresses and user browsing behavior. We collect this and other information using the tracking tools described in this policy.

How We Collect Information

We collect information directly from you. For example, when you register on a website for one of our programs. We also collect information if you leave comments or make contact requests.

We collect information from you passively. If you are on a mobile device and use a location based service, for example, then we will collect your location. We use common tracking tools like browser cookies to collect information passively. We may also use web beacons.

We collect information from third parties. For example, we might get information about you from one of our franchisees. This information might be combined with information we already have.

How We Use Information

We use your information as is disclosed at the time we collect the information and in the following ways:

- (1) To respond to your requests or inquiries. For example, we use your information to fulfill orders. When indicated, we may also use your information to process your employment application.
- (2) To improve our products and services and for related business purposes. For example, we use information to understand our visitors and customers. This includes looking at website usage trends. We also use your information to make website and product improvements. We might also use your information to customize your experience with us. We may do these activities using the tracking tools described in this policy.
- (3) For security purposes. For example, we might use information to protect our website or our company. We might also use information to protect our customers or our business partners.

(4)To promote Everyday Gourmet and our related companies. For example, unless we tell you otherwise, we might send you notices of special promotions, offers or solicitations. We might also notify you about new website features or product offerings. To manage your communications, follow the instructions in Your Choices, below.

(5)To communicate with you about your account or our relationship. For example, to notify you about changes to this Policy or our website Terms, to let you know about issues relating to your order or your relationship with us.

Information Sharing

We may share your information without limit as follows:

With other Everyday Gourmet & Fine Food Merchant, LLC companies and brands. Other companies and brands including MAROB, LLC. For a copy of their privacy policies, submit a form on the “Contact Us” page of our Site.

If we think we have to in order to comply with the law. For example, we will disclose information to respond to a court order or subpoena. We may also disclose if a government agency or investigatory body requests.

In the event all or part of Everyday Gourmet’s transfer of ownership. For example, if there is a merger, acquisition or similar event, we will share information with the new owner. We may also sell off all or part of our customer lists as part of an asset sale.

With our vendors. For example, we will share information with companies that help us deliver products and services. We also allow third parties like website hosting companies to collect information on our behalf.

Your Choices

To stop receiving our promotional emails, you can submit a request using the form on the “Contact Us” page of our Site.

You can choose whether or not to disclose personal information. Some parts of our sites and some services may be more difficult or impossible to use, though, if you choose not to share. If you turn of cookies or tracking tools parts of our site and services may also not function properly.
