Biography

William Charles Andrich "Bill", age 77, of Bad Axe passed away on May 19th, 2022, peacefully with family by his side. Bill was born September 28th, 1944, in Bad Axe, son of the late Fred and Wilma (Boyer) Andrich. He married his true love, Barbara Cregeur on January 7th, 1967. Bill was a lifelong resident of Bad Axe. His life was spent doing exactly what he loved every day... farming: tilling the ground, baling hay, and raising cattle. He also raised a fine family. Never will you meet a man who more faithfully lived his values. He was hardworking, honest, quick to lend a hand, and was known for his integrity and perseverance. Bill was a gifted engineer who was revered for his ability to "Billgyver" just about anything.

Bill served his country in the Army Reserve and attended Central Michigan University where he studied accounting. Bill enjoyed farming, sitting on the front porch with family, friends, and neighbors, attending the Wednesday conference at the Popple Trailblazers, creating spreadsheets, and in his younger years bowling, playing softball, dancing, and riding horses. He also enjoyed traveling with Barb having seen many beautiful and unique destinations.
