

O'Connor, Charles P.

Charles P. O'Connor, 60, of Rose City, passed away Tuesday, March 24, 2009 at his home after a long battle with cancer.

He had lived in Rose City since 2000 and formerly lived in Harbor Beach. Mr. O'Connor was a member of the American Legion in Luzerne and the Sterling Sportsman Club. He enjoyed hunting, fishing and Harley Davidson motorcycles, but especially enjoyed being with his grandchildren.

Mr. O'Connor is survived by his wife, Lee O'Connor of Rose City; children, Bryan (Elizabeth) Kloha of Clemmons, N.C., Micki (Brad) Trotter and Patrick O'Connor, both of Rose City; his daughter-in-law, Stephanie (Eric White) Wozniak of Saginaw; grandchildren, Brenna, Drew, Elliot, Weston and Sadie. Also surviving are his two sisters, Kathleen (Gary) Braun of Lakeland, Fla. and Mary O'Connor of Port Austin.

He was preceded in death by his son, Matthew O'Connor and a sister, Christine O'Connor.

Funeral service will begin at 11 a.m. Saturday, March 28, 2009 at the Trinity Methodist Church in Rose City. The Rev. Donald J. Wojewski will officiate.

Visitation will be from 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday and from 1 to 9 p.m. Friday at the Steuernal & McLaren Funeral Home in Rose City.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Trinity Methodist Church, Rose City or to Hospice of Helping Hands, West Branch.
