

Jones, Samuel

Samuel N. Jones, 96, of Caseville, died Thursday, August 14, 2003, at the Huron County Medical Care Facility in Bad Axe. He was born on January 10, 1907 in Ann Arbor, son of the late Arthur and Ida (Garlinghouse) Jones. He and Evelyn Welch were married on Sept. 9, 1933 in Angola, Indiana. Samuel attended Ferris State College in 1928 and graduated from the University of Michigan in 1933. He worked in sales for National Transit of Detroit from 1948 until he retired in 1968. He then worked in sales for Earl C. Smith Trucking in Bad Axe from 1971 until 1975. Samuel also taught executive public speaking for communications between the United States and Canada and served on the Lake Township Tax Review Board for nine years. He was a past Master of the Hubbard-Winsor Lodge 420 of the Masons of Michigan and a member of the Bad Axe Lions Club. Samuel loved gardening, fishing and public speaking. He is survived by his wife of almost 70 years, Evelyn; one daughter, Judy Miller and her husband, LeRoy, of Kinde; two grandchildren, David LeMaster and his wife, Marcie, of Caseville, Dawn Leach, of Tecumseh; four great-grandchildren, Jeanne, Michael, Brandon and Kailyn. He was preceded in death by his son, Raymond Jones. In accordance with the wishes of Samuel and his family, his body has been donated to the University of Michigan Medical School. Arrangements are being handled by the Knoblock Funeral Home in Kinde. Memorials may be made in Samuel's name to the Bad Axe Lions Club.
