

Take a Stand! Testify!

The Kentucky Raid

In 1847 black and white residents of Vandalia and Cassopolis stood up and stopped thirteen slave catchers from taking nine kidnapped slaves back to Kentucky. They showed great courage and determination in stopping what they saw as a grave injustice. Freedom seekers were allowed to testify in court and won.

When we encounter bigotry, intolerance and injustice we must find our own courage to do what is right.

Take a Stand! Testify!

Underground Railroad Society of Cass County
Vandalia, Michigan

www.urscc.org 