From Trauma to Addictions
International Critical Incident Stress Foundation
Monday, 02 August 2021 10 AM – 5 PM and
Tuesday, 03 August 2021 8 AM – 5 PM
Explore the relationship between exposure to traumas and the often resulting addiction. Individuals who work in the “helping professions” are statistically at a greater risk for developing addictions. The use of alcohol, drugs and other activities as a means of self-medicating overwhelming job-related stress and chronic exposure to emotionally charged events is often common place. Taught by Dr. Ed Hatcher.

Managing School Crisis - Theory to Application
International Critical Incident Stress Foundation
Wednesday, 04 August 2021 10 AM – 5 PM and
Thursday, 05 August 2021 8 AM – 5 PM
Designed to prepare administrators and educators for the inevitable crises that occur within schools and/or that effect those in schools, this training reflects the 3 most common phases of a crisis: pre-crisis planning, acute crisis response and post-crisis activities. Special attention is given to the most common pitfalls associated with crisis response activities. Taught by Dr. Ed Hatcher.

The TFFC Annual Business Meeting will be held at 6:30 PM on Thursday night, 05 August 2021 at TFACA.

Youth Mental Health First Aid (1 day class)
Friday, 06 August 2021 8 AM – 5 PM
Youth Mental Health First Aid is designed to teach parents, family members, caregivers, teachers, school staff, peers, neighbors, health and human services workers, and other caring citizens how to help an adolescent (age 12-18) who is experiencing a mental health or addictions challenge or is in crisis. The course introduces common mental health challenges for youth, reviews typical adolescent development, and teaches a 5-step action plan for how to help young people in both crisis and non-crisis situations. Taught by a combined staff.

Essentials of Emergency Service Chaplaincy
06 and 07 August 2021 8 AM – 5 PM
This course provides the foundation for Fire/Rescue/EMS chaplain service and teaches an established and credentialed system of protocols in order to provide chaplaincy to emergency service workers and the public. Participants must be members of FFC to get course credit. This class provides the initial requirement for Basic Chaplain Certification for the Tennessee Federation of Fire Chaplains. Taught by combined academy faculty.

The Tennessee Federation of Fire Chaplains

“Serving those who Serve”

The Tennessee Federation of Fire Chaplains supports the ministries of volunteer and paid fire department, ambulance service, and rescue squad chaplains, and assists emergency service agencies in developing their chaplaincy programs.

The TFFC cooperates with the Federation of Fire Chaplains on a national level, providing automatic membership and networking with the addition of a state-wide certification and accountability system for chaplains.

The Federation offers programs that provide its members with educational opportunities in training conferences and materials.

The network of mutual support offered by the TFFC helps disseminate and share information with other chaplains.

Assistance is given to fire/EMS/rescue organizations to start or improve their chaplaincy programs.

- TFFC has members all across the State.
- TFFC is non-denominational, non-sectarian, with no compromise on individual convictions.

Benefits to Members

A Firefighter's Prayer

*When I am called to duty, Lord
Whenever flames may rage,
Give me strength to save some life
Whatever be its age.
Help me embrace a little child
Before it is too late,
Or save an older person from the
Horror of that fate.
Enable me to be alert
And hear the weakest shout,
And quickly and efficiently
To put the fire out.
I want to fill my calling
And to give the best in me.
To guard my every neighbor
And protect his property.
And if I am to lose my life
According to my call,
Please bless with your protecting hand
my family, one and all.*

The Tennessee Federation of Fire Chaplains

*He has sent me to bind up the broken hearted...
To give unto them beauty for ashes...
To proclaim the acceptable year of our Lord.*

Isaiah 61
